Another Speech at Sheffield, England—Press Comments—War Rumors Subsided—Foreign Advices by Mail.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Yesterday Hon. Reverdy Johnson, American Minister, delivered another speech in Sheffield. This speech was in reply to an address presented by the corporate authorities of the city. Mr. Johnson said that in the discharge of the duties of his position, he anticipated no trouble, so far as the preservation of peaceful relations between the United States and England was concerned; but the high and deserved reputation achieved by his illustrious predecessor, Mr. Adams, had made difficult the task of succeeding him with equal acceptability. The highest aim of his mission would be to do as well. The speaker repeated what he said yesterday, that a rupture of the friendly relations now existing between the United States and Great Britain would be impossible on account of identity of race, language and aspirations. The character of Queen Victoria forbade the possibility of such a rupture. Mr. Johnson refuted the assertion of Mr. Roeback, one of the Representatives in the House of Commons from Sheffield, that the people of the United States were heterogenous. He maintained that the emigrants who landed on American shores all merged in one great nation, and that nation was English, and they did not vitiate the community by importing vices with them.

The London Times has a lengthy editorial on the subject of Johnson's recent speeches at Sheffield. It comments favorably on his declarations regarding the heterogeneousness of the American people, and thinks that the people of the United States are as much an English unit as the people of England, where the Irish, Scotch, French and Germans make so large a share of the population.

Referring incidentally to the general elections soon to occur in England, the Times says: Whatever may be the result, the same reciprocity of feelings between the United States and Great Britain is certain to ensue.

LONDON, September 5—Evening.—Telegrams from Hong Kong, dated July 24th, have been received. The Japanese Government has made full satisfaction to France for the murder of a boat's crew from a French frigate.

FRANCE.

PARIS, September 5.—Lord Lyons, British Minister, gave a banquet to Lord Stanley, English Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who is at present in the city. M. Moustier was present. Speeches of a friendly character and pacific character were made and good feeling prevailed.

PARIS, Sept. 5.—The Presse has another editorial to-day on the matter of the American squadron in Turkish waters. The writer says the demand that United States war vessels shall pass the Dardanelles was prompted by Russia, and that the Sublime Porte, encouraged by English and French Ministers, will refuse to comply.

GREECE.

VIENNA, September 5.—Admiral Farragut has arrived at Athens.

ARRIVED OUT.

SOUTHAMPTON, September 5.—The steamship Saxonia, from New York, arrived here this evening.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

FRANKFORT, September 5.—United States bonds closed dull at 75¾.

ANTWERP, September 5.—Petroleum closed firmer and 50 centimes higher; standard white 50 francs.

Foreign Mail Advices.

NEW YORK, September 6.—The steamship America, from Southampton on the 25th ult., brings the following news in addition to cable dispatches:

The storm which prevailed on the southwest coast of England on Saturday night, August 22d, proved very destructive to shipping. The beach at some points was literally strewn with wrecks of every description. Twenty-three lives were lost by the sinking of the ship Tara. Another large vessel, name unknown, went down off Formby Lightship, with all on board. Many disasters to British shipping are reported from the Welsh and Irish ports. Steam communication with Ireland and the Continent was generally suspended by the gale.

The editor of the Paris Reville has been sentenced two months' imprisonment and a fine of 5,000 francs for exciting hatred to the Government.

The Constitutionnel of the 22d says: The language of the Emperor at Troeges is beginning to bear fruit. In the east and west the political situation is becoming more settled, and a generous peace has gained the upper hand. Prussia feels as little desire as France to go to war, and all the powers are interested in averting any disturbance. The era of uncertainty cannot last any longer. The Government guarantees general security.

La France says the appointment of a new Minister to Brussels implies friendship between France and Belgium, which nothing is capable of changing.

The subscription to shares of the French Atlantic cable had closed with complete success.

Several shocks of an earthquake were felt in Hungary. They were quite violent.

A dispatch from the British Scientific Commission, sent out to India to observe the eclipse of the sun, indicate that on the 17th some very remarkable and unexpected observations of great value were obtained.

The betrothal of the King of Bavaria to the Grand Duchess Maria of Russia is regarded certain.

The proposed Conference of the South German States to form a military Commission will not meet and the scheme is regarded as entirely abandoned.

A Constantinople dispatch of the twenty-first reports that skirmishes continue in the mountains of Crete.

The Colfax Party.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

DENVER, COL., Sept. 5.—The Colfax party, with Governor Hunt and family, have just arrived safe and well, with a band of Ute Indians at their head. At the time of the Indian outbreak they were in the Valley of the Arkansas River, west of South Park. The Ute tribe, who are always faithful and friendly to the whites, being informed of it by a messenger from Gov. Hunt, sent a band of their braves, who escorted the party back to Denver.

NEW YORK CITY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 5, 1868.

Admiral Thacker and several other naval officers arrived here to-day from California.

Gen. Rosecranz and Horatio Seymour had an interview to-day.

Six robbers entered the house of P. Beller, at Orassy Point, on the Hudson river, this morning, and took away a safe, carried it to a boat and across the river, where it was burst open and robbed of $5,000. They were traced to this city but have not been captured.

The deaths for the week were 599.

The Stonington boat ran into a schooner last night during the fog, by which she had the greater portion of her lower guards torn off—a heavy leak occasioned. She was, however, brought into dock to-day, landing her passengers safely.

The Albion, of this city, denies the truth of the report that Mr. Seward is corresponding with the British Government on the subject of the removal of the Canadian reciprocity treaty.

A Boston merchant to-day caused his daughter to be sent to a reformation institution here until she becomes of age, she having run away from home last May to lead a life of shame here.

No new cases of cattle disease are reported. The usual precautions are being still exercised without causing any needless delay to cattle in transit. The herd of sixteen which was quarantined near King's Bridge have continued in perfect health, and was, by permission, sold at the last Bull's Head.

The road from Hoboken to Hudson city, the Hudson plank road, and all the lowlands in the vicinity of Jersey City were submerged by the flood of yesterday and last night. The damage in Brooklyn to roads, horse railways, and buildings in the Government District will probably amount to over $500,000. A portion of Greenwood Cemetery was much injured. The cellars of houses in some fifty blocks of houses in Brooklyn are filled with water and several shanties were swept away. No lives of people were lost, but many pigs were drowned.

Arrived, steamship America from Bremen via Southampton August 25th, and Columbia, from Glasgow, via Moville, August 22d.

NEW YORK, September 6.—A fire broke out about one o'clock this morning in the basement No. 29 Barclay street, this city, occupied by Julius H. Kinch, jobbing in glassware and manufacturer of kerosene lamps. The firemen were promptly on hand, but from the extreme depth of the store, over one hundred feet, were unable for some time to reach the fire, which was in the rear. Loss on Kinch's stock $15,000; fully insured. The upper floors were occupied by Terhun and Braet, manufacturers of window shades, whose stock was damaged to the amount of five thousand dollars and the building five thousand dollars; both fully insured. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Counterfeit two dollar bills on the Mutual Bank of Troy were put in circulation last evening.

It is estimated the late storm caused one hundred and fifty thousand dollars damage in Williamsburg, principally through the flooding of cellars and damaging of foundations.

GEORGIA.

Legislative Proceedings—A Radical Convention at Augusta.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ATLANTA, September. 5.—The Senate to-day passed a bill for the relief of debtors on the adjustment of debts on the principles of equity, by a vote of 18 17. The House took up the bill authorizing the General Assembly to elect a superintendent, auditor and treasurer of the State road. A majority of the judiciary committee favored the bill, but the minority opposed it and offered a substitute, which was adopted, that the General Assembly elect five commissioners for the State road, whose duty it shall be to elect a superintendent, auditor, and treasurer. The bill which came up on Monday will probably pass.

A resolution was offered, but not acted upon, declaring negroes ineligible to any and all offices of the State, and that all offices now filled by negroes be declared vacant, by reason of the ineligibility of occupants, and the Governer be directed to have such offices filled in compliance with the code of Georgia. The Governor and other commissioning authorities of the State are instructed to refuse commissions to all persons of color that have been or may be elected to any office in this State, until the Supreme Court of the State shall decide upon the eligibility of colored persons.

AUGUSTA, GA., Sept. 5.—The Radical County Convention met here to-day to appoint delegates to the District Convention, which meets here on the 10th inst., to nominate a candidate for Congress. Three to four hundred negroes were present. Speeches were made by Messrs. Bryant, Prince ane others, strongly denunciatory of the Democratic party and laudatory of the Republican party and Grant and Colfax.

The recent heavy rains have seriously injured the cotton crops. The news from Middle Georgia is gloomy; the worm, rust and rat are at work.

NEW ORLEANS.

Louisiana Legislature—A Violent Speech.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, September 5.—Pinchback, the mulatto recently installed in Mr. Jewel's place, as Senator from the Second District, New Orleans Parish, yesterday, in the Senate, rising to a question of privilege, in reply to certain newspaper paragraphs concerning him, after charging the people of this city with murdering and manifesting a growing disposition to murder men for political opinion and the color of their skin, uttered the following: "I want them to beware. I want to tell them that they have nearly reached the end of their string. The next outrage of the kind which they commit will be the signal for the dawn of a retribution which they have not dreamed, a signal that will cause ten thousand torches to be applied to this city, for patience will then have ceased to be a virtue and this city will be reduced to ashes." He was then called to order, but proceeded with his speech and reiterated his threats, adding a notification to the Democratic party that they (the negroes) propose to take the matter into their own hands in the future, and propose to have peace if they have to conquor a peace.

Damage by Rain in New Jersey.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, September 5.—The recent heavy rain did immense damage to the lower part of New Jersey. It is reported that not a single dam will be left in Salem. The roads are considerably injured and rains delayed.

Internal Revenue Appointments—Public Debt—General Grant—Lawlessness in Kentucky—Pensions—Patent Office—Cuba Requires Passports for Travelers.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5, 1868.

INTERNAL REVENUE APPOINTMENTS.

The following appointments were made to-day:

Storekeepers—O. G. Perkins and A. C. Weisser, Milwaukee, Wis.; R. P. Gardner, Buffalo.

Gaugers—August Browning, C. D. Townsend and A. B. King, first district, Illinois; Q. L. Ladd, sixth district, Missouri.

There are now only four or five of the least important districts to which the Commissioner has not submitted nominations for Supervisors.

RETURNED.

Gen. Dent, of General Grant's staff, who has been with the latter in his recent tour, returned to Washington last evening.

PUBLIC DEBT.

The public debt statement for August will be published on Monday. It will show an increase during the month of over ten millions.

GEN. GRANT.

Gen. Grant is now residing on a farm in Missouri. Gen. Dent remains here a short time when he will return to St. Lous and accompany Gen. Grant to this city about the middle of October.

FINANCIAL.

The fractional currency received from the Printing Department for the week amounted to $408,000; shipments $187,938; notes shipped $316,085; national bank notes issued $139,420; amount in circulation $299,867,508; fractional currency redeemed and destroyed $345,900.

LAWLESSNESS IN KENTUCKY.

In the case of resistance to the Department of a United States Marshal in Kentucky, while serving a process of Court in Internal Revenue; the Secretary of War, it is understood, has given directions that a force of mounted men be immediately sent to Nelson, Marion, and Larue counties, to enforce the delivery of the processes in time for the next term of Court.

PENSIONS.

The Commissioner of Pensions has instructed officers paying pensions on and after Monday next to require an oath to be taken that agents presenting a power of attorney are not pecuniarily interested.

PATENT OFFICE.

A Board of officers of the Patent Office has been constituted for the examination of all employes as to their proficiency in their duty. The examination will be commenced in the early part of next.

WASHINGTON, September 6, 1868.

PASSPORTS REQUIRED IN CUBA.

Official notice is given by the State Department that the Spanish authorities of the Island of Cuba have adopted new regulations requiring all passengers arriving at ports of that island to present to the authorities official passports properly vised by the Spanish Consul at ports of departure, or they will not be permitted to land without compliance with special conditions, which in many cases will be found very inconvenient and in others impossible. News has also been received at the Department that the papers purporting to be passports issued by the Mayor of New Orleans and vised by the Spanish Consul there are rejected under the before mentioned regulation. Notice has also been received that persons residing in the United States seaports, who call themselves passport agents, are in the habit of giving certificates in which it is stated that they have applied to the Department of State for passports, and that these certificates, being vised by the Spanish Consul, are presented as passports in Cuban ports and are rejected there under the same regulation before mentioned.

FIRE IN ST. LOUIS.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 6.—The grocery store of Mrs. J. P. Hunnon, Fourth street, between Morgan and Franklin avenues, running through to Broadway, was burned to-night. The stock was valued at about twenty thousand dollars; insured for eighteen thousand dollars. The building was damaged to the extent of five thousand dollars. The clothing store of F. Fattellzweig, adjoining, was damaged by water, the loss amounting to about one thousand dollars. Most of the stock was removed.

General Sherman has returned from his trip to the Rocky Mountains. He reports the Union Pacific Railroad finished seven hundred and ninety miles west of Omaha, and that it will be completed to Green River, sixty miles further, by October 1st.

Billy Emerson, the negro minstrel, had some words with Jack Howard, the Treasurer of Wilson's Opera House, in a hack about four o'clock this morning, and shot him, the ball taking effect in the forehead and glancing, passed under the scalp and came out on the back of the head. Emerson was arrested, but was subsequently admitted to bail to appear October 1st for examination. A woman was the cause of the affair. Howard was not much hurt.

Large Fire in Boston.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, September 6.—A fire broke out early this morning among a quantity of packing materials in the upper portion of a six story block, Nos. 131 to 137 Congress street. The fire was confined to the upper stories, but considerable damage was done by water to occupants of the other stories, including the Boston stained and cut glass words owned by J. M. Cook, Slavin Crumbly, flint glass cutters; Bogg & Haigood, wholesale dealers in boots and shoes, and others. The building was damaged to the extent of $8,000 to $10,000; mostly insured.

Extensive Fire in Alstead, Mass.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

CONCORD, N. H., September 5.—A destructive fire took place in Alstead on Thursday night, consuming the Paper Mill of Prentice & Scripture, the Post Office, the dwelling, grocery store and stable of Timothy Tufts, and badly damaging the store of Mr. Lowell and two dwelling houses adjoining. Masonic Hall, over the Post Office, was also destroyed. Loss not yet estimated and it is supposed the property was mostly insured.

Congressional Nomination.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HUDSON, N. Y., September 5.—The Democratic Convention of the 12th district today nominated Hon. Chas. W. Heaton, of Poughkeepsie, for Member of Congress.

TENNESSEE.

Letter from Gen. Forrest Concerning His Reported Conversation.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, September 5.—The following is a copy of General Forrest's letter to Mr. Woodward, correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial:

Memphis, September 3, 1868.—DEAR SIR: I have just read your letter in the Commercial giving a report of my conversation on Friday last. I do not think you would intentionally misrepresent me but you have done so, and I suppose because you misunderstood my meaning. The portions of your letter to which I object are corrected in the ollowing paragraph:

I promised the Legislature my personal influence and aid in maintaining order and enforcing the laws. I have never advised the people to resist any law, but to submit to the laws until they can be corrected by lawful legislation. I said the militia bill would occasion no trouble, unless they violated the law by carrying out the Govenor's proclamation, which I believe to be unconstitutional and in violation of law, in shooting men down without trial, as recommended by that proclamation. I said it was reported and believed that there are forty thousand Ku Klux in Tennessee, and I believe the organization stronger in other States. I meant to impiy, when I said that Ku Klux recognize the Federal Government, that they would obey all State laws. They recognize all laws and will obey them, so I have been informed, in protecting peaceable citizens from oppression from any quarter. I did not say that any man's house was picketed. I did not mean to convey the idea that I would raise any troops, and more than that, no man could do it in five days, even if they were organized. I said that General Grant was at Holly Springs and not at Corinth. I said the charge against him was false. Did not use the word liar. I cannot consent to remain silent in the matter, for if I did so, under an incorrect impression of my personal views, I might be looked upon as one desiring a conflict, when in truth I am so adverse to anything of the kind that I will make any honorable sacrifice to avoid it. Hoping that I may have this explanation placed before your readers, I remain, very respectfully,

[Signed] N. B. FORREST.

What General Forrest terms a proclamation by Governor Brownlow was simply an editorial of the Knoxville Whig.

The Committee appointed by the Legislature to wait on President Johnson consists of Senator Wisenor and Representatives Agee and Hamilton.

The militia bill cannot pass the Senate in a shape to satisfy the House, and will probably fail altogether.

ARKANSAS.

The Conway County Difficulty Adjusted—A Bloody Tragedy.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MEMPHIS, Sept. 5.—Arkansas papers to the 1st are received. Everything is quiet in Conway county. The belligerents had been disarmed.

Governor Clayton, and Hon. A. H. Garland, addressed a large number of citizens at Lewisburg on the 29th, counseling mutual forbearance.

The Ardakelphia (Dallas county) Standard of the 29th has a report that a bloody tragedy occurred last week in Louisville, Lafayette county, the extreme southwest county in the State, resulting in the death of seven negroes and five white men. The circumstances of the case were substantially as follows: A negro man had committed a horrid outrage upon a little girl thirteen years old and the citizens executed summary punishment upon him by hanging. A brother of the negro went to town after the execution and behaved himself in a very insulting and riotous manner, using threats against those who had hung his brother. The people of the place, after bearing his insults for some time, hung him also. Negroes of the town and neighborhood then collected together to the number of some forty or fifty and made a general attack upon the town, which was met by the citizens with the above result.

Crop reports are very encouraging, particularly in the southwestern portion of the State. The crops in Auchita and Columbia counties are suffering for want of rain.

MEMPHIS.

Outrages by Negroes—A White Citizen Murdered—Attempt to Outrage a Lady.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, Sept. 6.—At three o'clock this morning a band of negroes went to the house of T. A. Alexander, on the Hernando road, three miles below the city, and called to him. On his striking a light he was fired at through the window and wounded severely, but struggled to fasten the door, his wife, in the meantime, escaping through the back door. Before Mr. Alexander could secure the door four armed negroes sprang into the room, firing at him, one ball taking effect in the chest, mortally wounding him. After sacking the house the negroes set it on fire, but Mrs. Alexander, having alarmed the neighbors, returned in time to extinguish the flames. Mr. Alexander is still alive, but there are no hopes of his recovery. A negro named Mose Cockrell was arrested to day as one of the parties, and detectives are on the track of the others.

Last night four negroes entered the house of Mrs. Laura Jones, at President's Island, just below the city, and commenced pillaging. A negro named Simpson attempted to outrage her, but in the struggle she secured a carving knife and stabbed Simpson in the groin and chest. Her screams brought the neighbors to the spot, who succeeded in arresting the entire party and brought them to the city. They were lodged in the Station-house. Simpson is not expected to live.

A Family Murdered.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 5.—A German named Willich, his wife and two children, residing at Randolph Station, ten miles below the city, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, were found dead in their dwelling on Thursday morning. The deed is supposed to have been committed by negroes for the small amount of one hundred dollars which Willich was known to possess. An axe found in the house leads to the belief that they were struck down with it.

Fatal Lamp Explosion.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RIVERSIDE, N. J., September 5.—Regina Mathias and Mary Mathias, aged twelve and fifteen years respectively, died this morning from burns caused by the explosion of a fluid lamp while filling it Thursday evening.

MONTREAL, September 5.—Twenty-three thousand two hundred and seventy-six emigrants arrived at Toronto during the present year, of whom only three thousand one hundred and one remained in Canada.

FLAGRANT OUTRAGE.

A Respectable Lady Arrested and Brutally Dragged to the Mayor's Office—Arrest of the Officers—An Arbitrary Order.

The respectable portion of our citizens were thrown into a turmoil of excitement Saturday night by the perpetration of a most flagrant outrage under color of law, the arrest of the wife of one of our most respectable citizens by a policeman, and dragging her in a rough and inhuman manner to the Mayor's office, for no offence whatever. The facts in the case are as follows:

About nine o'clock Saturday evening, Mrs. Dake, wife of Dr. B. F. Dake, residing on Penn street, left her residence, accompanied by a colored boy who is employed by the Doctor, in search of a colored cook. It appears that the colored girl for whom they were looking had made application to Mrs. D. a short time since for a situation. She was requested to leave her address and was informed that the situation would probably be open in a few days when, if she was not engaged, she could have it.

At the time stated Mrs. D. was looking for the colored girl, to have her come to work Monday morning. The girl had stated that she resided on Strawberry alley, and thither Mrs. D. went in search of her. Not knowing the precise location of the house, she stopped several times and inquired, and when she came near Grant street she noticed a man following them. She turned down Grant street to go home, intending to give up the search, and when at the corner of Grant and Seventh the man, who had followed her all the way through the alley, was still close behind them. She became alarmed and stepped into a grocery store on Seventh street, under Mozart Hall, intending to await the arrival of her husband, for whom she was about to send the boy who accompanied her. Before she had time to give the proper directions to the boy, officer Robb, of the Mayor's police, came in and arrested her and, calling to Patrick Keller to assist him, dragged her out of the store in a rude manner and started to the lockup with her. The lady remonstrated, told the officer who she was, where she resided and what her business was, but all to no purpose. She made some resistance, when the inhuman fellow placed the "nippers" on her arms and dragged her on until he reached the corner of Smithfield and Fifth streets, where, meeting officer Williams, Robb called upon him for assistance. Williams, it is stated, ordered Robb to remove the "nippers" from her arms, and the two proceeded with the lady to the corner of Smithfield and Diamond alley, where it appears they were met by a responsible gentleman who said that he knew who the lady was, and requested them to let her go, that he would take her to the office, and they could follow him. They objected to this arrangement however, and forced the lady along to the Mayor's office. The man Keller, it appears, was the ruffian who had been following Mrs. Dake, and when she went into the store, called the attention of Robb to the fact that a woman was in the store accompanied by a negro, and upon this information the arrest was made. Keller followed the party to the Mayor's office, as did also the negro boy, and in a few moments the office was filled. The excitement was beginning to run high, and in order to quell it Robb and Keller were placed under arrest, and locked up, and Mrs. Dake placed in a carriage and conveyed to her home.

The lady subjected to the brutal treatment was very ill after the excitement of the occasion had passed away, and at times on Saturday night her life was despaired of, her nerves having been put to so severe a test. At best she is but a delicate woman, weighing perhaps not an hundred pounds, and yet, in accomplishing her unwarrantable arrest, two great over-grown men used "nippers," appliances invented for muscular prisoners alone.

Yesterday morning Dr. Dake appeared at the Mayor's office and made information, charging Robb with aggravated assault and battery, and Williams and Keller with assault and battery. The accused were arrested and held for a hearing at three o'clock. At that hour the parties appeared, the prosecution being represented by Messrs. Marshall, Wilson and Woodward, Esqs., while the defendants were without counsel. Mr. Marshall, on behalf of the prosecution, wished to know whether the accused desired a hearing, and if not, desired that they be held in competent bail to answer at court.

The Mayor advised them to waive a hearing, which advice they accepted, and he then held Robb to bail in the sum of three thousand dollars, and the others in two thousand each for their appearance at court. Williams procured bail, and the others were committed in default.

The case, as we have already stated, is attended with considerable interest, and there is a great deal of speculation as to who is really the responsible party. The officers making the arrest are doubtless amenable to the law, but law and public opinion are two different things, and consequently their verdicts do not always agree. It is a well known fact that the Mayor has given orders, or instructions, to his officers to arrest all women they find on the streets unattended after certain hours, an order without either precedent or law, yet it has been generally enforced, and the case above alluded to is no more nor less than the result of that order. The officer making the arrest was informed by Keller that the woman was a street walker, and that his orders required him to arrest all persons of that class he found on the streets after certain hours, and although he may have exceeded his authority, he was only doing what he supposed to be his duty. The presumption that a police officer should know every lady he meets, and be able to say whether she is a respectable woman or a "woman of the town," is a very broad one indeed, and if an officer acting under that arbitrary order should err in his judgment and arrest one of the former, when the circumstances of the case would lead him to believe he was doing his duty, the law would doubtless hold him responsible, while public opinion would most certainly condemn the man who promulgated the order.

That such an order exists or did exist will not be disputed. We were so informed by the Mayor himself, and in confirmation of it have seen on more than one instance women brought into the watch-house and locked up upon no other charge except that they were found on the street "after certain hours." Within the past three weeks a young girl of respectable appearance was arrested on Sixth street and taken to the lock-up, where she stated that she had been at work and was returning home to Pennsylvania avenue, when she was arrested. The officer was interrogated, and said she was not molesting any one, but that his orders were to arrest all women found on the street after "certain hours." A member of the police force said he knew the girl; she lived on the avenue, a few doors from where he resided, and that he would take her to her home. The privilege was not granted, however. The captain of the night watch stated that his orders were explicit and he would obey them. He was instructed by the Mayor, he said, to lock all women up who were arrested on the street after "certain hours" without protection, and the girl was locked up and kept till morning.

The order to arrest women on the street after "certain hours," even though it be qualified so as to extend to the demi monde alone, is an arbitary one and without the color of either law or common sense to support it, and every officer making such an arrest, when the party arrested has committed no breach of the peace, or been guilty of the violation of a city ordinance, is liable to a prosecution for assault and battery.

Second Avenue.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 4, 1868.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—It appears to me our city officials while improving Second street (now avenue) during the present summer, did not extend their observations down town far enough, or they would have paid some attention to those outrageous, animal killing, wagon breaking gutter crossings at Ross, Grant and Smithfield street. Just think of it. In three squares five gutters crossing one of the principal outlets of our city. They would be a disgrace to any place, not to speak of a city, and to be crossing an avenue. Now these gutters are bad enough in summer time, but how very much in winter when filled with ice and slush; scarcely a day then but you may see a horse down in one of them, taken off his feet in efforts to take his load through them instead of over them if things were as they should be.

We think iron gutters, such as we have on other streets, at the above mentioned points would not require a very great expenditure, while it would certainly add to the appearance of our avenue, it would be of very great benefit to those having occasion to travel that portion of it.

If we can't have Nicolson pavement without gutters, let us have the cobble stones as level as possible.

SECOND WARD.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

—Sanford E. Church has been in Washington, consulting with the President relative to political matters and appointments in New York.

—Secretary McCulloch has ordered a still further reduction of forces in the different Custom Houses, and says he is determined that those employed shall earn their pay by work.'

—An old lady named Gulger was run over Saturday afternoon on the Reading railroad, north of Philadelphia, and killed. Shortly after an unknown woman was run over and killed by a train of freight cars.

Complete returns from all but six small towns in Vermont give Page a majority of 26,774. The six towns not heard from gave two hundred Republican majority last year. Therefore Governor Page's majority will be about 27,000.

Suit for Libel.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—Frank Leslie, of New York, has sued the proprietor of the Boston Post for libel, claiming damages in $20,000. The obnoxious paragraph stated that Leslie had arrived at Richfield Springs with a lady and two fast horses, and it is asserted by the prosecutor that the paragraph intimated unchaste relations between the lady and himself.

PRONUNCIAMENTOS, or recitals of grievances enforced by insurrection, have become of such common occurrence in Mexico, that the mania has extended to the college students. Recently, the under graduates of the Chihuahua Institute broke out into insurrection, on account of some wrongs inflicted upon them by the authorities, and now we hear of a similar movement on the part of the students of the College of San Ildefonso, of Mexico city. Because of the alleged badness of their food, they issued a pronunciamento, routed and imprisoned their professors and the servants of the institution, including the obnoxious cook, and then began breaking up the furniture of the place. Governor Baez, of the district of Mexico, heard of this, and with a company of soldiers interfered, conquered the rebellious students, released the professors, and had seven of the leading insurgents placed in prison.

ABOUT TWO WEEKS SINCE, as a little son of William Conway, residing in Syracuse, N. Y., was crossing the bridge near the locks, he was struck on the head by a ball club in the hands of an unknown boy. The head was cut somewhat, but nothing serious was expected from the injury. The boy was around for eight or ten days, and up to Friday last appeared in his usual health, and did not complain much of his injury. On Friday he was taken with spells of stupidness, and a physician was summoned. The boy continued to grow worse, and the doctor opened the wound on his head and found that the skull bone was depressed somewhat, resting on the brain. The trepanning operation was preformed, but to no purpose, as the lad continued to grow worse, and died at eight o'clock Tuesday evening. The name of the boy who struck him is not known.

FLAX CULTIVATION IN IRELAND.—A return recently issued of Great Britain shows from the office of the Registrar General the number of acres cultivated in flax in the several counties of Ireland in 1867 and 1868. From this return there appears to be a decrease of 49,811 acres, the totals being: In 1867, 253,257 acres; in 1868, 206,446 acres. This decrease was distributed over the country thus: In Connaught there was a falling off of 1,072 acres, in Leinster of 2,890, in Munster 441, and in Ulster the decrease was no less than 42,408 acres. In every county there was a decrease of culture of this article, except one (Wicklow), which exhibits a small increase—that is, in 1867 there was one acre under flax in that county; this year it has advanced to six.

THE EGYPTIAN LOTUS, which, it is stated, grows luxuriantly in the shallow water bordering Lake Erie, near the mouth of the River Raisin, is now in full bloom. There are large fields of this plant in that vicinity, and the blossoms are very large and very fragrant. Detroit papers speak of a blossom which measures 12¾ inchas in diameter, while the leaf of the plant is 32 inches in diameter.

ST. THOMAS-IN-THE-EAST, the district in Jamaica where the insurrection took place in the latter part of 1865, it is reported, is again in a state of excitement, and a repetition of the troubles among the colored population is feared. Judge Masheder, it is alleged, is making violent harangues, calculated to incite another rising, and a great uneasiness prevails in the district.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

IN BLOSSOM-TIME.

It's O my heart, my heart!
To be out in the sun and sing;
To sing and shout in the fields about,
In the balm and the blossoming.

Sing loud, O bird in the tree,
O bird, sing loud in the sky,
And honey-bees, blacken the clover-beds—
There are none of you glad as I.

The leaves laugh low in the wind,
Laugh low with the wind at play;
And the odorous call of the flowers all
Entices my soul away.

For O but the world is fair, is fair,
And O but the world is sweet!
I will out in the gold of the blossoming morn
And sit at the Master's feet.

And the love my heart would speak
I will fold in the lily's rim,
That the lips of the blossom, more pure and meek,
May offer it up to Him.

Then sing in the hedgerow green, O thrush,
O skylark, sing in the blue;
Sing loud, sing clear, that the King may hear,
And my soul shall sing with you.

F. the first went over the ground but didn't find a fungus, and has concluded in future to sit up two nights instead of one, in hopes of being early enough.

An Incident of Mormonism.

On the 25th of August, writes a correspondent, between 750 and 800 Mormon immigrants, who on the 12th instant landed in New York from the ship Emerald Isle, passed through Cheyenne. Among those emigrants was a girl aged about sixteen years, who has a married sister living in the latter city, who was extremely anxious to reclaim her from the Mormons, and if possible to induce her to remain here. In devising plans for the accomplishment of this object she concluded not to go to the train herself, but to send her husband with a message to the young girl that her elder sister was here and strongly desired to see her. It was thought this little strategem would get the girl beyond the power and influence by which she was surrounded, and, once released, her liberty would be secured. The husband proceeded on his errand; he saw the girl, spoke to her, and delivered his message, but more than this he failed to accomplish. To get her from the train by permission was impossible; to accomplish this object by force proved equally unsuccessful. Pleadings were answered with denials; force met with overwhelming resistance; and from the poor woman who wished to save her sister, and who unseen was overlooking the struggle upon which she based so many hopes, there was sobs and tears.

When the party in charge of the emigrant girl dragged her, with her drapery torn to rags, from her friends, and in spite of their protests forced her into the car, which was moving on, the woman burst into hysteric wails and cries for one whom she was compelled to look upon as lost forever. The mother of the girl, who resides in Birmingham, England, consented to her coming to America only on condition that she remained in Cheyenne with her sister. A letter from her mother is evidence of that fact. A telegraphic dispatch has been sent to Benton to have her returned to Cheyenne.

ABOUT TWO WEEKS since, Mrs. Martin Chace, of Taunton, Mass., while singing to her child, accidentally drew a small needle, with a piece of thread attached, which she held in her mouth, into her windpipe. She was immediately seized with violent paroxysms of choking and coughing, and suffocation seemed imminent for some time, but finally became easier. She remained in this critical condition, with occasional intervals of rest, eleven days, during which time several unsuccessful attempts were made to relieve her by different physicians. On Saturday the operation of tracheotomy, or opening the windpipe, was performed and search made, but the needle was not discovered. The wound was left open until the patient regained strength to bear a re-examination. A second attempt was made on Tuesday which resulted in recovering the needle, and there is every prospect of Mrs. Chace's recovery.

EDUCATIONAL.

THE WESTERN UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Every Parent and Guardian who has a son or ward to educate should know that we have in our city a Chartered Institution, endowed by the State and the generous friends of learning to the amount of $200 000 Preparatory, Commercial, Scientific and Collegiate in character, with a Faculty ten in number, and a course of study equal to that of our best Colleges. The rooms are large and high, and the apparatus and cabinet of a superior kind. The Observatory belonging to it has one of the finest telescopes in the country, is endowed, is in charge of an astronomer of great ability, and is having four new instruments added to it at an expense of $5 000. All the income from endowment and from tuition is expended in supporting the institution. The aim of the Board of Trustees, who are among our most enterprising and benevolent citizens, is to furnish the best advantages to all our youth equal to those enjoyed in any of our cities. The instruction in all the courses of study is thorough, no temporary expedients being resorted to to secure popularity merely. Only Professors of ability and experience are employed.

Catalogues or information may be had by calling at the University Building, corner of ROSS AND DIAMOND STREETS, between 9 A. M. and 12 M. The next term will commence September 1st.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 144⅞.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 5, 1865.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money in good supply and easier at 2@3 per cent. on call loans. Sterling quiet and steady at 9@9¼, gold, first class bills. Gold—the market gained strength as the day advanced and the price rose to 144⅞, owing in part to the telegram from Washington to the effect that Federal troops had been sent to Kentucky to protect the Courts, and, also, that there was an increased probability of the September session of Congress; afterwards the price reacted to 144⅝, at which quotation the market closed. There is still a large short interest, which is seen in the dearer lending rates for gold from day to day.

BANK STATEMENT.

The Bank statement is more favorable than was expected. Loans, $271,830,696; increase, $49,970. Specie, $16,815,778; decrease, $133,330. Circulation, $34,170,419; increase, $58,280. Deposits, $207,854,341; decrease, $2,480,305. Legal tenders, $65,-383,773; decrease, $1,773,603.

GOVERNMENTS.

Governments dull but generally steady; Coupons '81, 114@114¼; do. '62, 113½@113⅝; do. '64, 109½@109⅝; do. '65, 111¼@111⅜; do. new, 108⅝@108¾; do. '67, 108⅝@108¾; do. '68, 108¾@108⅞; Ten-Forties, 104⅞@105⅛.

BORDER STATE BONDS.

State bonds steady; Missouris, 92⅝@92⅞; Old Tennessees, 67¾@69; New Tennessee, 67@68; Old North Carolinas, 73@74; new, 72@73, old Virginias, 53½@55; new, 53¾@54.

THE UNION PACIFIC ROAD,

At a regular meeting of the Board of Directors this week, voted $3,000,000 of the first mortgage bonds to be laid aside in trust as pledged to be spent on culverts and bridges, and on already accepted parts of the road. The Directors agreed upon a contract with Mr. Boomer, of Chicago, for the superstruction of an iron bridge over the Missouri River, between Omaha and Council Bluffs. This bridge is to cost a million and a half dollars, probably two millions, with the approaches on the Council Bluffs side. All the roads centering at Council Bluffs are to cross over it—Rock Island, Cedar Rapids and other roads.

RAILWAY STOCKS.

Stock market at the close was heavy and lower on New York roads, but firm on Western. The advance to-day was quite marked. St. Paul, North Western and Wabash are advancing. Express shares higher. Miscellaneous shares dull.

RIVER NEWS.

—Capt. James Good has sold barge No. 37, at St. Louis, to the Mississippi Valley Transportation Company for $500.

—The Steamboat agency firm at Memphis, of Levy & Miller, was dissolved on the first inst. Capt. Levy withdraws and associates himself with Mr. J. B. Sharpe, late of Pine Bluff.

—A St. Louis exchange says: Three transportation lines are now candidates for through New Orleans business—the Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship Company, and the towboat Atlantic and her three barges. The latter made a trip in the M. V. line, but now goes alone.

—Capt. Charles Muhlman on Thursday purchased of the Louisville Mail Line Company the fine steamer Major Anderson, and will put her in the place of the Potomac, recently burned between Cincinnati and Wheeling, as soon as the water permits. Terms of sale private.

—A Louisville telegram says: The snagboats are lying at Cairo, instead of being at work removing obstructions. Gen. Weitzel is here surveying the falls, preparatory to making one or more wing dams, instead of improving the canal. It appears that the Congressional appropriations are for river improvements, and not a dollar is to be used toward making the canal navigable.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Friday, says: The sub-municipal committee advise the appropriation of means as desired by the citizens committee to defray the expenses of Cincinnati in part with other cities interested in the improvement of western river navigation. $10,000 is the sum asked of Cincinnati, about $6,000 of Pittsburgh, $5,000 of Louisville, $2,000 of Cairo. and the same amount of the smaller towns on the Ohio, making in all an appropriation of $25,000 for the occasion.

—The Gallipolis Journal says: The Allena May entered the Gallipolis and Haskellville trade as a daily packet. Captain Simmers, of the Kanawha, since he assumed command of the Kanawha, on the 1st of November last, has taken from the mines at Coalburg 1,200,000 bnshels. All this has been done without accident. Captain John O. Carr, clerk of the Annie Laurie, met with a severe accident by being caught by a falling fender, His right ear was partially torn from the head, the side of his head and face badly bruised, and a pretty severe cut in the leg. Under the circumstances, his escape from instant death was miraculous.

—The Cairo correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writes as follows: The Petrolia is at work pulling snags near Cumberland Island. It is a great pity the Long and Abert are lying so long idle at Mound City at a time when the rivers are at so favorable a stage of removing snags. As it is alleged, they are kept there on account of sickness, I think it would be advisable to have efficient medical officers, well supplied with medicines, to be appointed to each snagboat, and the push the work with energy. If a crew becomes sick, secure another. The low water season is always the sickly season, and, if the boats are to be laid up on that account, we must pronounce them a failure. Prompt medical aid on board the J. J. Abert might possibly have saved the life of her commander, the lamented Captain Dodson, as he could not obtain the services of a physician until he arrived at Cairo—some days after he was attacked by disease.

Rivers and Weather.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, September 4.—The river is stationary with three and a half feet of water in the canal. Weather clear and cool.

ST. LOUIS, September 4.—Weather clear and pleasant at 5.15 P. M.

GOLD closed in New York on Saturday at 144⅜.

IN consequence of failure to procure speakers, the Republican mass Convention proposed to be held at Erie, on the 10th inst., has been postponed to the 24th.

THE HON. JOHN SHERMAN will speak in Pennsylvania as follows:

Oct. 7 at Pittsburgh.
" 8 " Blairsville.
" 9 " Tyrone.
" 10 " Lancaster.
" 12 " Williamsport.

These dates and places are official.

THE Indians of Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska are on the war path and our far West exchanges are teeming with accounts of their depredations. We hope PHIL. SHERIDEN is not twenty miles away from his post, and that he will succeed, as none other has done before him, in bringing the noble Lo to full knowledge of the power of our Government to hold him in subjection.

THE TANNERS' CLUB on Saturday night were assailed with sticks and stones all along the line of march to and from Lawrenceville. The opposition are responsible for these disgraceful proceedings, and before any serious trouble arises we urge Democratic newspapers and speakers to counsel their friends not to indulge in this species of blackguardism. We trust all good Republicans will continue the course they have entered upon, and by force of example deter their more pugnacious neighbors from dealing in bricks and cobble-stones. If the worst must come let the responsibility rest with the Democrats alone.

THE Post cordially invites Capt. COOK, Lieut. FLOYD and Capt. COLLIER, of the Tanners Club, to assist this evening at the firing of a salute over the news from Kentucky by the Democrats. Inasmuch as the opposition number none in their Northern wing who have had military experience, we think those gentlemen should accept the invitation. But wouldn't it be awful if they should suddenly return, through the force of habit, to their old practice of leveling their guns at rebels, and pour a broadside into the camp of those who loved but feared to wear the gray? It is a mistake which might readily be made by brave Union soldiers, who have participated in the dispersing of large Democratic meetings on the Potomac and other places.

GEN. ROSECRANS proposes that the Federal government shall make an unconditional surrender to the Confederate government. This is the substance of his letter to General LEE. All who are in favor of the proposition will say so by voting for SEYMOUR and BLAIR. All who are opposed will say so by voting for GRANT and COLFAX. If the first named ticket shall be elected, then, as Governor VANCE, of North Carolina, expressed it, "everything for which the South fought will be won." This battle is going to be decisive. The battle of Gettysburg was not a more direct struggle between Loyalty and Rebellion than is the Presidential contest. Let every man take his place on the side he likes best; but let not one delude himself with the notion that he can be true to the country while standing in the ranks of the rebels.

REPUBLICAN RALLY TO-NIGHT.

The HON. JOHN SHERMAN, of Ohio, will speak this evening, in the City Hall, in behalf of GRANT and COLFAX, of Liberty and Order, of Humanity and Progress. Let there be such a turnout from these two cities and the adjacent boroughs as shall be commensurate. not only with his eminent position and services, but with the principles and aims of the great party with which he is identified, and of which he is one of the acknowledged leaders.

THE PERSONAL SECURITY OF OUR CITIZENS.

Our local columns present a full report of a case occurring on Saturday night, involving the rights and duties of the police authority, which should have the earnest consideration of every citizen, and especially of all who have wives, daughters, mothers or sisters to protect. We do not propose to anticipate, with our own conclusions, the results of the investigation which is now in progress. Our purpose is, for the present, only to invite the attention of the citizens of Pittsburgh to the reported facts, connecting therewith the extraordinary "orders" which, it is understood, had heretofore been promulgated by the Mayor, and under which the offending policemen claim to have acted.

KU-KLUX FACTS—THEORY AND PRACTICE.

Partizan opponents to Southern reconstruction make persistent efforts to suppress, from the knowledge of the Northern people, the facts which exhibit the horrible state of terrorism and violence already established in nearly every Southern State, under the encouragement of the Democratic party. We stated a few days since that over nine hundred murders of Union men had been recorded in Texas alone, since the disbandonment of the rebel armies. To this we have now to add that the condition of affairs in Tennessee is equally terrible. A Joint Committee of the Legislature of that State, having been appointed to investigate the rebel Ku-Klux outrages, have just submitted their report. It is a document which would fill seven of our columns in the finest type, and reveals a horrible record of outrage and murder. The reign of terror existing over two-thirds of the State excluded the Committee from a large body of testimony; they succeeded, however, in collecting enough to show that the murders of Union citizens have averaged at least one each day for six months past, few, if any, of which have been brought to punishment. As far as practicable, the report gives names and dates, specifying each act of violence with particularity. The offense for which the victims suffered horrible deaths was "voting the Republican ticket" or being a "Radical." It is clearly shown that the greater number of these murders were committed by the Ku-Klux, the secret Democratic league of assassins, and that order and peace, with security for lives, property and perfect freedom, can only be secured by the most decisive military intervention. They accordingly recommend the passage of the bill placing the militia at the disposal of the Governor, whose duty it is to secure obedience to the laws.

The admissions made by FORREST, the notorious Tennessee rebel, touching the organization, numbers and designs of this band of assassins, will not be forgotten by the reader. His late attempt to explain away these admissions, in a letter printed this morning, will amount to nothing, He still insists upon the "reserved right" of every Ku-Klux to judge for himself of the constitutionality and validity of laws; "any "honorable sacrifice" which he or they profess themselves willing to make "to avoid a conflict" does not include the sacrifice of this "reserved right" which, we may as well say at once, makes up the entire fallacy—the alpha and omega—of secession and rebellion. The general admissions of this eminent Ku-Klux leader must therefore stand, as first and correctly reported. Put these admissions by the side of the startling report just made by the Legislative Committee, and the reader possesses the whole case. A monster conspiracy exists for resistance to the laws and the assassination of good citizens, and its existence, not denied, is justified by one of its most eminent leaders, in the citizen's indefeasible right of judgment upon public legislation. Who can say, then, that the rebellion does not live still, and that another explosion is not imminent?

REBEL EXPECTATIONS AND FEDERAL SYCOPHANCY.

A correspondence has been made public between General ROSECRANS, the Federal Minister to the Virginia Springs, and some thirty or more ex-Confederate Generals and leaders assembled at that rebel "Court." Nothing appears in this correspondence, or is suggested by the public weight of the names attached thereto, to warrant the exceptional interest which has been excited by the recent movements of those gentlemen, and by the announcement of their intention to communicate in this way with the people of the Union. But, nevertheless, a word or two of commentary upon their contribution to current politics may not be amiss.

We have to thank General ROSECRANS for his conclusive vindication of the wisdom which actuated President LINCOLN and General GRANT in relieving him from his very important military command, after the battle of Chickamauga. He has, by the revelations of this correspondence, effectually extirpated from the breasts of his too confiding friends—and there were many of them—the last lingering doubt which has, until now, maintained the theory of his hearty convictions and sincere fidelity in the Union cause. No officer, who could be capable of declarations so gratuitous and of opinions at such an extraordinary variance from all the facts in the last seven years' terrible history of a causeless rebellion, had ever his heart enlisted with his sword, or was a safe leader for our Union army. His lack of military capacity was made painfully apparent in the needless disasters which he brought upon our arms; his utter destitution of anything like a sincere and cordial devotion to the integrity of the Union, of any earnest and faithful attachment to the flag which he appeared to uphold, was not then suspected by a loyal nation, but events prove that his unsoundness was patent to our own clearer-sighted leaders, and he gives to the world, at last, in his own handwriting, the amplest evidence of their sagacity. General ROSECRANS was fighting on the wrong side; he had not the facility of conscience which enabled LEE to violate his oath to the constitution and flag; his political opinions would have led him to join BEAUREGARD and JOHNSON, but the naked obligations of his military oath constrained him into a distasteful fidelity, which had no efficiency or virtue because his heart was not in it. We repeat then, our grateful acknowledgement for this fresh testimony, in proof of the wisdom of his suspension, from a man who loved neither the Union nor the two great leaders of its civil and military fortunes, and who naturally to-day includes the same Union and its surviving Hero in his enmity. His own testimony now leads the masses of his countrymen to a hearty concurrence in the action with which LINCOLN and GRANT censured him in '64. When he was relieved from his command and retired from all trusts, the people inclined to doubt the justice of the censure; the people, and we now speak of ourselves as well, must now accept that justice as established.

In his letter to the rebel leaders not a word can be pointed cut which even alludes to their infamous and gigantic revolt against the Federal authority. He treats them every where as "brave, energetic, and self-sacrificing men" who have merely "laid down their arms and sworn allegiance to the Government." He says nothing of their similar oath which they had broken before. He deplores the state of "semi-anarchy existing for the last three years in ten States of the Union," but makes no allusion, unkind or otherwise, to the state of bloody and merciless civil war which these red-handed rebels waged, for the four preceding years, against the Government which every man of them had been already equally sworn to obey. He deprecates the social and political mischief of the present Southern situation, but has not a word for the treasons, the perjuries, the wicked ambition of those who were rebels against the best Government the sun ever shone upon. He charges all the results, which the South has since experienced, upon the enfranchised freedmen and the few white friends of the Union, and, assuming to speak in behalf of "the Union army"—from which he has been wisely and forever removed—and for "the North and West"—whose loyal millions look upon his sycophantic complicity in rebellion after the fact with ineffable scorn—he asks those assembled rebels to aid him in showing that there is a wiser and better way to reconstruct Southern society, than to take its power from rebels and put it into loyal hands.

Of course, LEE, BEAUREGARD and their fellow-rebels in council, say "yes, certainly, by all means, give us our rights under the Constitution, restore to us the suffrage and take it away from the freedmen; that is all we need and, with that, the old irritations will pass away and the old wounds will be healed." No you don't, gentlemen! The old irritations will pass away when, by deeds as well as words, you loyally and humbly submit yourselves to the fullest authority of the Federal law, and not before. The old wounds will be healed when the Northern people, mourners for their dead kindred slain by your rebel hands, can, secure in their lives and free in thought and speech, make pilgrimages to the graves of their sons, fathers and brothers who sleep in Southern earth; when Mississippi, Arkansas and Georgia shall be as safe residences for the loyal citizen as Ohio or Massachusetts; when life, liberty, property and all the privileges of citizenship shall be the undisputed birth-right of every American who can fight for the flag, from the Potomac to the Mexican border—and not before. How soon that may be depends mainly upon you.

The letter of ROSECRANS is a shameful one. We have no words to waste upon the rebel reply. While this is decorous in its re-assertion of the lost cause, and not more specious than we should expect, that, to which they affect a reply, is in every respect the most discreditable document which ever emanated from any public man, under the pretence of devotion to the higher interests of the Union. ROSECRANS was a failure as a soldier, and we now know why; as a politician he will be remembered, as soon as the first feeling of public disgust subsides, as the laughing stock of this generation. His statesmanship, whether displayed in his political speculations, or in his novel doctrines of finance, sinks to the lowest grade of absurdity. He has only been successful in establishing his own absolute incompeteney for any civil trust, and in furnishing the intelligent and loyal people with a fresh supply of effective ammunition, against those whose friend he seems always to have been, and whose alliance he now openly courts. Beyond that, this correspondence presents, as we anticipated, "the most impudent and absurd document of the campaign."

RDPUBLICAN MASS MEETINGS.

The Union State Committee announces a series of mass meetings, covering the entire Commonwealth, and to occupy the remaining period intervening before the October election. We note the following appointments for Western Pennsylvania:

Sept. 8th, Blairsville, Beaver and Kittanning; Sept. 9th, Tyrone and Clarion; 16th, Warren; 17th, Corry; 18th, Oil City; 19th, Meadville and Sharon; 21st, Mercer, Tionesta and Saltsburg; 22d, New Castle and Latrobe; 23d, Beaver and Franklin; 24th, Pittsburgh, Lewisburg and Erie; 25th, Butler, Mount Peasant and Greenville; 26th, Kittanning, Altoona and Lewisburg; 28th, Freeport and Elderton, (Armstrong county); 29th, Indiana; 30th, Uniontown and Clearfield; October 1st, Waynesburg; 2d, Washington; 3d, Johnstown; 5th, Somerset; 6th, Bedford; 8th, Tyrone; 10th, Greensburg.

A DESPAIRING CANDIDATE.

The mental condition of HORATIO SEYMOUR is clearly disclosed in his own letter just published as follows:

UTICA, July 24, 1868.

MY DEAR SIR: I have not been able until this moment to answer your kind letter of the 13th inst. I am gratified with the kindness of my friends; but they have plunged me into a sea of troubles. I do not know how the canvass will go; but, now that I am in the fight, I shall do the best I can. I see the Republicans are trying to dodge the financial issues, and to sink the election into a mere personal contest. Our papers must not allow this. They must push the debt and taxation upon public attention.

Truly yours, HORATIO SEYMOUR.
Hon. C. M. INGERSOLL, New Haven, Conn.

THE fiscal year of the Federal Treasury commences July 1st. As the appropriation bills were not generally passed in time to meet the proposed expenditures for July, it became necessary to carry these over to the next month, August. It is also announced that "many of the requisitions from the War and other departments were for contracts which were due sixty or ninety days previous, and not paid because last year's appropriations did not cover them. For example, the Indian Bureau will exhaust nearly one-third of its entire appropriation for the present fiscal year in the August requisitions." The monthly debt statement, to be published to-morrow, will therefore show a nominal increase of about ten millions, including the $7,000,000 paid for the Alaska purchase, while the figures for the current month of September will, when published, show even more than a corresponding abatement, and fully make good the total reduction thus far, of $266,255,090, (excluding the railway bonds) from its maximum three years ago.

THE New York World of the 4th states that the greenback resolution adopted by the Democratic Convention at Albany does not express the sense of the entire Democratic party. It then quotes the resolution just adopted by the Democracy of Massachusetts, as follows:

Resolved, That gold and silver coin is the only constitutional legal tender, and while we would have but one currency for all, the Democracy of Massachusetts, now as in the past, are true to their old faith in hard money, and demand that it be restored to the people at the earliest moment consistent with the interests of the business of the country.

The World then proceeds to re-affirm the position already so decisively taken by BLAIR and M'CULLOCH, as to the true issue in this canvass. It says:

The great dividing line between the two political parties is the Reconstruction question. No citizen who detests the Radical policy of Reconstruction will be deterred from voting for the Democratic candidates by his dislike of greenbacks; nor, on the other hand, will any citizen who accepts the Radical policy be enticed into the Democratic party by his belief that the five-twenty bonds are payable in lawful money.

Two years ago, when the Soldiers' Convention was held in this city, the men of Philadelphia turned out in a handsome manner, and contributed largely to the success of the demonstration. On the first of next month, a like Convention will be held in Philadelphia. We learn that the soldiers of this city are preparing to attend it in considerable force. This is decidedly well. A large delegation to the Philadelphia meeting cannot fail of producing beneficial results.

Obituary.

Hon. Francis Granger, one of the old time statesman of this country, died on August 28th, after a continued illness, at his residence in Canandaigua, New York. He was born in Suffield, Hartford county, Connecticut, in 1787; was graduated at Yale College in 1811. He then removed to the western part of the State of New York, and from 1826 to 1831 was a member of the New York Legislature. He was a representative in Congress from the State of New York from 1835 to 1837. In 1835, at a Whig State Convention held at Harrisburg, and by an Anti-Masonic Convention held at the same place, he was nominated for Vice President on the same ticket with General William H. Harrison. For this office he received seventy-seven votes, from the States of Vermont, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Delaware, Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana, but failed in securing his election. He next served in Congress, again as a Representative from the State of New York, from 1839 to 1841. On March 6th, 1841, he was appointed Postmaster General in the Cabinet of President Harrison, and continued under President Tyler. He served till September 11th, 1841, when he resigned. Mr. Granger since that time has lived in retirement.

How They Love the Constitution.

When the Southern rebels were fighting for the destruction of the Union, Frank Pierce, a former Democratic President, encouraged them to go on in their foul work, and promised that grass should grow in Northern streets, and blood flow on Northern highways. Horatio Seymour, now Democratic candidate for President, when the Government called for soldiers, responded by insisting that it should "stop the draft." Judge Woodward, afterward a Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, and now Congressman from that State, boasted that he had never voted a man or a dollar for "the unholy war," and expressed a hope that the line of division would be drawn so far North as to include Pennsylvania. Clement L. Vallandigham, then a Democratic Congressman, afterward Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, now again a nominee for Congress, asserted that all his sympathies were with Rebellion, and made his declaration good by conspiracies to give it success. Thus, in every direction, the chieftains of Democracy showed that, instead of being defenders of the Constitution, they were heartily in favor of schemes for its destruction.—Albany Evening Journal.

One of the Democratic Witnesses.

The ex-Rebel Commissioner for the exchange of Prisoners, Robert Ould, is out in a two column article in one of the morning newspapers here, trying to show that Gen. Grant was responsible for the non-exchange of prisoners in 1864, and that consequently all the suffering of the Federal prisoners at Andersonville and other Southern prisons is to be attributed to Grant. The article is evidently intended as an electioneering document for the benefit of the Democratic candidates. Ould's letter consists of mere assertions on his own responsibility, unsupported by any official data going to connect Gen. Grant in any way with the non-exchange of prisoners. He tries to make it appear that the Rebels were anxious to make the captivity of the Union soldiers as pleasant as possible, and then reiterates as a reason for their failure to do the old story that they had not means. Ould is very anxious for the election of Seymour and Blair, and it is understood this letter was written and published for the purpose of turning soldiers who were formerly in rebel prisons against Gen. Grant.

Governor Seymour and Secession.

In the evening, dining again with my friend the banker. * * * Among the guests were the Hon. Horatio Seymour, a former Governor of the State of New York, Mr. Tilden, an acute laywer, and Mr. Bancroft. The result left on my mind by their conversation and arguments was that, according to the Constitution, the Government could not employ force to prevent secession, or to compel States which had seceded by the will of the people to acknowledge the Federal power. In fact, according to them, the Federal Government was the mere machine put forward by a society of sovereign States as a common instrument for certain ministerial acts, more particularly those which affected the external relations of the confederation. * * * The occasion offered itself to Mr. Horatio Seymour to give me his views of the Constitution of the United States, and by degrees, the theme spread over the table * * * There was not a man who maintained the Government had any power to force the people of a State, or to force a State to remain in the Union or under the action of the Federal Government: in other words, the symbol of power at Washington is not at all analogous to that which represents an established Government in other countries. Quid prosunt leges aymis! Although they admitted the Southern leaders had undertaken the treason against the Union years ago, they could not bring themselves to allow their old opponent, the Republicans now in power, to dispose of the armed force of the Union against their brother Democrats in the Southern States:

"Mr Seymour is a man of compromise but his views go further than those which were entertained by his party ten years ago. Although secession would produce revolution, it was nevertheless 'a right' founded on abstract paincples, which could scarcely be abrogated consistently with regard to the original compact-"

The Cattle Disease in Ohio.

The Cleveland Herald of the 5th says: It is reported that much excitement exists in the towns of Twinsburgh, Northfield and Mantaua, Portage county, concerning the cattle plague. Some Texas cattle in Mantua, have fallen sick with the disease, and cattle in other towns named are said to be similarly affected. An examination of the Mantua cattle is to be made at once by the State Commissioners.

Since writing the above we have seen a gentleman from the neighborhood of the infected district. From him we learn that on the 4th of July a heavy cattle dealer of Mantua—Mr. Blair, our informant thinks—drove ninety head of Texas cattle through Brecksville, Northfield, Twinsburgh, Aurora and Mantua. Of these cattle, it is said, ninety, or all but five, have since died.

Another gentleman who saw some of the diseased cattle in Northfield on Thursday says they are covered with ticks as large as pumkin seeds. These ticks multiply with astonishing rapidity until they completely cover the animal. One farmer with a common card comb, took from one cow an eight quart pan full of these ticks, full of blood.

The people in all the towns around are greatly alarmed, and are anxious for the immediate action of the State Commission, which was to have gone to Mantua Friday morning.

STRANGE to say, the Emperor Napoleon has caused the stud of German language to be resumed in all Alsatian primary and grammar schools, where that branch of instruction had lately been neglected. Upon his return from Salzburg to Strautsburg, the inspectors and Dames patronesses of the Altatian schools were presented to him, and he urged them strongly to promote the study of German, "cette belle langue," as much as possible. His recommendation was of course equivalent to an order, and the little Alisations are now boring over German spelling-books and primers.

—Three men named Robert Scott, Dan-Hunter and Charles Oakley, broke into a store in Pittsfield, Pike county, Illinois, murdered the watchman, blew open the safe and carried off the contents. The men then went to Louisiana, Missouri, where they were overtaken by the Vigilance Committe and hung.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM?

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Liniments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in avoiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should t once be resorted to.

DR. SARGENT'S

Liuretic or Backache Pills

Can be relied on for these purposes; they have a direct influence on the cells of the kidneys, assists nature in relieving them of any foreign particles, and mulates them to a healthy and vigorous action

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Contain nothing injurious, being composed of entirely vegetable remedies; they do not sicken nor gripe—on the contrary they act as a gentle tonic and restores tone to the system, They are recommended by all who who have tried them.

PHYSICAL EXHAUSTION.

Worn out with the burning heats of Summer, the human system requires to be reinforced and regenerated at this season. Strength has litersily been steaming out of it under a temperature that necessarily produces exhaustion. Fall is the season of remittent and intermittent fevers, and the weak and renevated are always their first victims. Now, therefore, is the time for invigoration. Those who have neglected to tone and regulate the digestive and secretive organs during the months of June and July, can no longer continue to do so without imminent peril to health and life. Commence a course of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS without delay. Of all renovating, strength-sustaining preparations this is the most wholesome and the most potent. It does not unduly excite the most sensitive organization. Its mission is to preserve, regulate and restore. The tonic, anti-bilious and aperient vegetable elements which it contains are associated in the exact proportions necessary to put the whole physique into perfect working order. The purity of all its ingredients is guaranteed. It reuses the languid appetite, gives unwonted energy to the digestion, calms and braces the nerves, and replaces lassitude and depression with energy and cheerfulness; besides being agreeable to the palate and free from all the objections urged against the adulterated stimulants and tonics, of which it is designed to supply the place.

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR.

In observations and notes taken by Dr. KEYSER, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured in their incipiency if application were made to some responsible and competent aural surgeon. The Doctor quotes from the opinion of Wilde, a well known aural surgeon, who says: "I fear not to reiterate the assertion which I made on several former occasions, that if the disease of the ear were as well studied or understood by the generality of practitioners, and as early attended to as those of the eye, it would be found that they were just as much within the pale of scientific treatment. * * Deafness is so common and so distressing an infirmity, and when of long standing so incurable, that we cannot too strongly urge all medical practitioners to make themselves familiar with the treatment of the diseases of the ear."

The Doctor says that nearly all annoying Discharges, Buzzings and Morbid Growths peculiar to the organ of the hearing, some of which had lingered through a score or two of years, can be cured or ameliorated by proper treatment.

FOUND.

That after repeated trials of other remedies, Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Purifier and Blood Pills are the best medicines extant to cure the diseases for which they are recommended.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

PILES.

There is no medicine in use so efficacous as Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills for the permanent cure of Blind or Bleeding Piles; they strike at the root of disease, thereby removing the cause.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

TEMPERANCE.

There is, perhaps, no one thing that has done so much to promote the cause of temperance as that gentle stimulating tonic, Roback's Stomach Bitters; they strengthen and invigorate without producing the ill effects of alcoholic stimulants.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

LIVER PILLS

Are Pills that have a direct and powerful action o the liver, and relieve any inactivity or congeste state of that all important organ upon which depedds the whole process of digestion. The importance, then, of procuring a Pill that shall have such direct action without the ill effects of mercury, is manifest to every one; such Pills are Roback's Blood Pills; they are warranted purely vegetable, and can with certainty be relied upon, and are safe at all times.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

INDIGESTION

Is but another name for Dyspepsia, and the parent of many ills. Roback's Stomach Bitters taken in wine-glass-full doses, directly after each meal, will surely effect a permanent cure. Do not take our word for it, but try them.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

NIGHT MARE

Is one of the many diseases of which Dyspepsia is the parent. To effect a cure persons should avoid hearty food at night, and take a wine-glass-full of Roback's Stomach Bitters on retiring to bed.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

RENOVATE.

During the Spring months it is one of the regular household duties to renovate, and, in the multiplicity of other duties one's own self is, in a great measure, overlooked; thousands of valuable lives might be prolonged, and many doubtless saved from premature graves by thoroughly renovating the system with Dr. Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

MELANCHOLY

Is one of the many disorders of the nervous system, arising from a low state of the constitutional health or severe prostration after long continued sickness, and requires invigorating remedies like Roback's Stomach Bitters to restore the nerves to their natural vitality.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

WHO SELLS THEM?

The Agents for the sale of ROBACK'S BLOOD PILLS, STOMACH BITTERS and BLOOD PURIFIER are all Druggists everywhere.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but while alive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or its General Agents.

☞ LOCAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies with suitable endorsement, should be addressed To THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.

—The New York Tribune speaking of government bonds remarks that: "The investment demand is on the steady increase, and the amount taken out of the street in small lots during the week has been heavy. Purchases were made for investment, to-day, by parties who have been waiting for the Vermont election to show how the feeling ran. The straight forward speech of Mr. Fessenden has removed the fears of a number of doubters, whose ideas of financial honesty were much muddled by the teachings of the greenback school. All classes of bonds are in sharp borrowing demand, and from the large amount taken from the street during the present week it would appear that the bears will have great difficulty in making their deliveries, and a sharp corner ensue, as already they have been free borrowers from investors for delivery, and see no prospect of any decline, but rather a growing tendency to purchase both for speculative and investment account.

—The New York Times says: In the present season we have reason to believe that an unusual proportion of the proceeds of Foreign Goods, especially for Continental account, will go directly into United States Bonds. 1. Because Gold, under one financial or political pretext or onother, has been advanced by speculation to higher rates than the actual position, either financial or political, really justifies. 2. Because the threats of such mischief-makers as Pendleton and Butler to pay Greenbacks and to call in the Five-twenties before they are due or the country can return to Specie payments, have grown stale, and their authors contemptible. 3. Because the excitement and result of the Fall elections have already ceased to excite serious disfrust, at home or abroad, in the preservation of the Public Faith.

—The following remarks from one of the New York papers seem to show the mode by which reckless speculators unload upon one another. The stock market was active and strong in the early part of the day, and the cliques availed themselves of the opportunity to unload, which they did to a considerable extent; but the market broke down under the pressure of these sales after the second board, and closed lower. The chief event was the sale of 10,000 shares of Rock Island 103¼ by an operator who has been carrying a load of this stock for some time, and recently inaugurated the present upward turn with the view of selling what he held, in which he succeeded to some extent to-day.

—The London Times, of August 22d, reports that: About £100,000 of the gold recently arrived from New York is about to be shipped back to that city. It consists of coins (half-eagles, &c.) which, being in demand for circulation, command a slight premium. The remittances hither formed part of the sum to be paid to Russia for the Alaska Territory, and would seem to have been rather clumsily managed.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTBURGH GAZETTEE, SATURDAY, September 5, 1868.

GENERAL REVIEW.

The market has again been unsettled and irregular during the week which has just closed, and the operations in the aggregate were not as large as those of last week. On Thursday the market was considerably stronger and a considerable amount of both Crude and Refined was sold at an advance; since then there has been but comparatively little done, though prices have undergone no quotable change. The receipts of Crude during the week, were 21,795 bbls against 19,635 bbls last week, while the receipts from Jan. 1st to date foot up 722,142 bbls. The exports of refined were 15,699 bbls against 18,722 bbls last week; since January 1st 442,497 against 425,115 bbls same time last year. The sales for the week footed up 44,600 bbls crude and 36,000 bbls refined, making a total of 82,600 bbls against 91,000 bbls last week.

CRUDE.

The Crude market was again very quiet to-day, the sales being very light, while prices are nominally unchanged. We can report 500 bbls, on spot, at 12c, and 1,000 each for October and November, at same figure; last evening there was a sale of 2,000 bbls, to be delivered between now and December 1st, seller's option, at 12c. This afternoon there were offers to sell almost any delivery between now and January 1st, 1869, at 12c; but, so far as we could learn, there was none offering at anything less.

REFINED.

The Refined market was also very quiet, though, as in the case of Crude, prices remain unchanged. Spot oil was quoted at 30¾c, and September and October or September, October and November at 31¾c. What is true of our own market, it would appear, is equally true of the eastern markets; there is but comparatively little doing in either Philadelphia or New York. There is a fair western and home demand for small lots of oil, and we can report sales of standard white at 28c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, September, 5 1868.

The general markets have been moderately active during the past week, and while the demand for some articles has improved, and prices advanced in consequence, other articles have been as dull as ever. Compared with last week, however, there has been very little change in values, one way or the other, though the general impression that nearly all of the leading articles of trade will go lower. Wheat and Flour are almost certain to decline, and the same is true of Sugar, and some articles we might mention, for the very good reason, that the supply is, or will be, considerably in excess of the demand.

BUTTER—Still keeps up to war prices, but we are in hopes that when the weather gets a little cooler, there will larger shipments and lower figures. Prime to choice may be quoted at 35 to 37.

EGGS—Under the influence of diminished arrivals the market is firmer and fresh packed may now be quoted at 19 to 20c.

CHEESE—Is firm but unchanged at 14 to 15c for Western Reserve and Hamburg; 17 to 18c for Factory and Goshen and 20 for Sweitzer.

SEEDS—Small sales of Timothy seed at $3,25 to $3,50. Flaxseed is in demand at $2¼ and but but little offering. Clover seed is nominal at $7,50 to $8.

APPLES—The supply is still somewhat in excess of the demand and prices are unchanged, at $2 to $3,50 per bbl, as to quality.

POTATOES—Unchanged at $3,50 to $3,75 per bbl, though in better supply. Jersey Sweets a shade lower, and we now quote at $6 to $6,50 per bbl.

SALT—Is dull and nominally unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80 to the trade, and $2, for small lots in store.

HAY—Is firm but unchanged, with regular sales at from $20 to $30 per ton, according to quality.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged at $1,20 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is in steady demandat 14¼c to 14¾c for Shoulders; 16½ to 16¾c for Ribbed, and 18½c to 18¾ for Clear Sides, and 22 to 22½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 19¼ to 20c in tierces; and 21 to 21½, in kegs. Mess Pork $30,50 to $31,50.

GRAIN—Wheat is in good supply, that is, the mills are getting all they want, and there are but very few outside buyers; we continue to quote at $2,10 to $2,12 for prime Red, and 3 to 5c higher for White. Corn is firm but unchanged at $1,10 to $1,15 for mixed to prime Yellow. Oats firmer and higher, and we now quote at 63 to 65c, on track and in elevator, and 68 to 70c, in store, Barley is firm and higher, and prime Spring sells readily at $2. Rye is quiet and unchanged at $1,40, and but little offering.

MILL FEED—Sales of Middlings reported on track at $2 to $2,10. The mills continue to quote at $1 for Screenings; $1.10for Bran; $1,30 for Shipstuffs, and $2,20 for Middlings.

FLOUR—The demand is not as good as it was in the early part of the week, and while the market is weak, prices are unchanged. Spring Wheat at $10 to $10,25 for new, and $10,50 to $10,75 for old. Winter Wheat, $10.75 to $11. The "Pearl" and "City Mills continue to quote at $11,30 for White Wheat, in barrels, and $11, in sacks; Red Wheat at $10,80, in barrels, and $10,50, in sacks. Rye Flour is still quoted at $9,50, for old.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 5.—Dry Goods market steady, with trade unusually good at the close of the week. It is now evident that prices, for the present, have touched their lowest point, and confidence appears to be fully established. Consequently, buyers take hold with more alacrity, especially of woolen goods. Cotton fabrics also are beginning to sell more freely at 17c for Atlantic A and Appleton A. Brown Sheetings at 14c for Atlantic L and Pacific L; do at 16c for Nassau R; 14½ for Broadway; 15¼ for St. Lawrence; 16½c for Amoskeag B; 15c for Harrisburg A; 18c for forty inch Saranac E; 14½c for Laconia B; 13½c for Holden N, new marked G; 13c for Massachusetts E, and 16½ for Rockdale. Bleached muslins at 13½c for Blackstone D, by the piece, and 13c by the case, which is very cheap; 15½c for Andover. Ginghams at 13c for Lancaster. Prints at 12½c for Amoskeag; 13½c for Spragues and Pacific; 13c for Cocheco and Merrima D, and 15½c for Merrimac W.

Cincinnati Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, September 5.—Flour firm but quiet; extra family sold at $9,50a9,75. Wheat quiet at $1,98a2,00. Corn advanced to $1,00a1,03, owing to light supply and a demand firm for distillers. Oats steady at 55c. Rye firm at $1,38a1,40. Cotton dull at 29c. Tobacco unchanged and quiet. Whisky dull at 70c in bond. Mess pork quiet and firm at $ 9. Bulk meats held firmly at 12¼a12½c, but no demand. Bacon firm but quiet at 13¾a17¼ for shoulders and clear sides. Sugar cured hams dull at 20a21c. There is a large demand for lard with sales of 1,800 tierces at 18¼a18⅝c, at the close 19c was asked. Sugar dull at 13a13¼c for new and 16a16¼c for refined. Coffee firm at 21a26c. Butter in demand at 33a37c. Linseed oil dull at $1,13a1,16. Petroleum quiet at 33c for refined. Gold 144¼ buying. Money market unchanged. Exchange steady at one tenth discount buying and par selling.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW BRIGHTON, PA.

Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., Sept. 4, 1868.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference opened with religious services, conducted by Rev. John Gregory.

Rev. A. Hutton, at his own request, was voted a testimonial of his good standing.

Rev. G. G. Westfall was released from the office of Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society, and Rev. Jesse H. Hall elected in his stead.

At this stage of the meeting the name of Rev. Valentine Lucas, deceased, was called, and Drs. Brown, Reeves, Laishley, Collier, and Scott paid touching and tender tributes to his character. The Conference was deeply affected. Brother Lucas was a worthy member of the Conference, and a useful minister of the Gospel. He leaves two brothers in the active ministry and members of this Conference.

Dr. Collier was requested to prepare his sermon, delivered before the Conference, on the Divinity of Christ, and publish it in permanent form for distribution among the people, as it is a subject of great importance at this time, and the sermon was an able defense, composed of unanswerable arguments.

In the evening a missionary sermon was preached by Rev. C. Jones. Text Luke 4. 43; "And he said unto them, I must preach the Kingdom of God to other cities also for therefore am I sent." He said our very existence as a Church depends upon largely upon our missionary operations. Our growth depends upon it, and growth is the condition of life.

He urged the propriety and importance of Home Missions from the conduct of the Saviour whose personal work was entirely home work, confining himself to his own lands. He claimed that our own country affords greater opportunities for home mission work than any other, because of our liberal Government, and the absence of State Church impediments.

The tide of immigration from the Old Country, bringing so many skeptics and erriligious persons to our country, unless we can Christianize them they will demoralize us and overthrow our churches, destroy our Sabbath laws, and other laws bearing upon the subjects of morals and religion.

In selecting locations for home mission work we should give preference to the cities and towns because they are centres of influence, intelligence and wealth, as well as of moral corruption.

NEW BRIGHTON, SATURDAY, Sept. 5, '68.

Conference opened at half-past eight o'clock. Religious services conducted by Rev. J. B. Graham.

Roll called and miutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Methodist Church at Hammersville, Allegheny county, asked to be admitted into Conference, and was received by a unanimous vote. The delegate was present and took his seas as a member of Conference.

The Committee on Itinerancy and Orders reported, recommending several brethren for ministerial orders and work.

The Committee on Adrian College reported. The College is in first rate condition, in every respect Location excellent; community intelligent. Many of last years' students were converted to God while at College. This is evidence that the training at Adrian College is not only intellectual, but religious. It is all that the Church can wish.

The Faculty is composed of a corps of competent and popular instructors. Both sexes are admitted.

The Committee on Boundaries reported a few changes were made in the boundaries of circuits and missions.

Adjourned with prayer by Dr. Ragan.

Affairs in Greece.

Accounts from Greece just received at Washington speak of the joy of the people in consequence of the birth of an heir to the Greek throne, such an event not having before happened for the last four centuries. The child of Queen Olga of Greece received on the day of his birth, August 2d, the names of Constantine Henry Demosthenes. The bells were rung and cannon fired. The vast square before the royal palace was densely filled with an enthusiastic populace, and shouts of "Long live Constantine," were frequently uttered. The King appeared on the balcony with the Grand Duchess Alexandria of Russia, mother to the Queen, her two sons, Grand Dukes Alexis and Nicholas, and all the officers of the court and highest officials of State. Athens for some days was the scene of great rejoicing. The same letters from Grecian sources say that the Cretan insurrection is flourishing; that the Turks are nearly worn out and discouraged, and it will be with great difficulty if they can continue the contest, while the Christians are flushed with success and infuriated by the recent massacres to desperate deeds and enterprise. Through the intervention, for the greater part, of General Ignatieff, the Porte has been obliged to dismiss Porta Pasha, commanding in Candia, and other officials there.

Melancholy Accident.

Another of those melancholy accidents resulting from the carelessness of handling firearms, occurred in Camden, N. J., late on Tuesday afternoon. A son of Capt. Hann, aged fourteen years, went out to shoot reed birds, in company with some other boys, along the marshes in front of the city. While watching for a flock he stood leaning on his gun, which was already cocked, pressing his foot against the guard to the trigger. He was cautioned by several gentlemen of the danger of such carelessness, but he paid no heed to the warning, and while he was thus being expostulated with, the gun was discharged, the whole contents lodging in the region of the abdomen, inflicting a horrible and ghastly wound. He was conveyed to his home, where medical assistance was immediately summoned, but he died in a short time afterwards. This is another sad warning to boys against carelessly handling firearms; for the perfect recklessness with which they are used makes it a wonder that more serious accidents do not oftener occur. Boys, for the sake of your own safety, take warning by this ill-fated lad.

An inhabitant of Berlin lately, during the great heat, experimented on the hatching of hens' eggs in sand. On the 22d of July he placed six in a cigar box filled with that material, and exposed the case to the sun on that and the following days. The first chick broke the shell on the 9th of August, the second on the 10th, the third and fourth on the 11th, and the other two on the following day. They are all going on well, being fed on boiled eggs cut up small and mixed with millet. The average period of hatching chickens is twenty-one days; in the present case the first was produced in nineteen.

A Theory of the Universe has recently been started, according to which the author attempts to show that the earth has been formed of gaseous matter, which in the first instance, issuing from the sun, subsequently passed from the gaseous to the liquid state, and is now passing into an entirely solid form; that the earth and all the other planets of the solar system are gradually approaching the sun, into which they will ultimately fall and be absorbed.

To Ladies and Gentlemen—All About Kissing—How it Should and How it Should Not be Done.

The weather is hot—too hot, we think, even for love making and kissing. Yet, we suppose, young people care not for the condition of the weather or the range of the mercury when they "set their heads on't" to love and be loved by each other. A lady furnishes one of our exchanges a full history of kissing—"how to do it, and how not to do it," which we republish "for the benefit of all concerned."

"People will kiss, yet not one in a hundred know how to extract bliss frum lovely lips no more than they know how to make diamonds out of charcoal, and yet is is easy at least for us.

"This little item is not alone for young beginners, but for the many who get at it like hunting coon or shelling corn. First know when you are to kiss. Don't make a mistake, although mistakes may be good. Don't jump up like a trout for a fly, and smack a woman on the neck, or on the ear, or on the corner of the forehead, on the end of the nose, or slop over her waterfall, or bonnet ribbon, in haste to get through. The gentleman should be a little the tallest. He should have a clean face, a kind eye, and a mouth full of expression instead of tobacco. Don't kiss every thing, including nasty little dogs male and female. Don't sit down to it, stand up. Need not be anxous to get in a crowd.

"Two persons are a plenty to corner and catch a kiss. More persons spoil the sport. It won't hurt any after you are used to it. Take the left hand of the lady in your right hand. Let your hat go to—any place out of the way! Throw the left hand gently over the shoulder of the lady, and let the hand fall down on the right side toward the left. Don't be in a hurry. Draw her gently to your loving heart. Her hand will fall lightly on your shoulder, and a handsome shoulder-strap it makes! Don't be in a hurry. Send a little life down your left arm and let it know its business. Her left hand is in your right, let there be no expression to that—not like the grip of a vice, but a gentle clasp full of electricity, thought and respect. Don't be in a hurry. Her head lies carelessly on your shoulder; you are nearly heart to heart! look down into her half closed eyes! Gently yet manly press her to your bosom. Stand firm, and Providence will give you strength for the ordeal. Be brave, but don't be in a hurry. Her lips almost open! lean lightly forward with your head, not the body. Take good aim. The lips meet—the eyes close—the heart opens—the soul rides the storms, troubles and sorrows of life, (don't be in a hurry!) heaven opens before you, the world shoots from under your feet as a meteor flashes across the evening sky; (don't be afraid!) the nerves dance before the first created altar of love as a zephyr dances with the dew-trimmed flowers—the heart forgets its bitterness—and the art of kissing is learned!

"No noise, no fuss, no fluttering and squirming, like a hook-impaled worm. Kissing don't hurt: and it don't require a stamp to make it legal. Don't job down on a beautiful mouth as if spearing for frogs! Do not muss the hair, scratch down her collar, bite her cheek, squizzle her rich ribbons and leave her mussed, rumpled and flummixed! Don't grab and yank the lady as if she was a struggling colt! Do not flavor your kisses with onions, tobacco, gin cocktails, lager-beer, brandy, &c., for a muddling kiss is worse than the itch to a delicate sensible woman.

"There, now, is your receipt for it."

On Monday evening, as the eight o'clock train on the Niagara Falls branch of the New York Central Railroad was nearing the bridge over the Scajaquada Creek, near Pratt's rolling mills, Black Rock, the engineer noticed a man with a dinner pail in his hand crossing the bridge. He was observed to throw up both his hands, and then to disappear. The train, it is said, was stopped as soon as possible, and search made, but no trace of the stranger could be found. Subsequently it appeared that the man was an employe at the Pratt works, and was on his way home when the affair occurred. It is supposed he jumped through the bridge to avoid being struck by the engine. He lay in a helpless condition for some time, but at last managed to make his way home, at no great distance from the spot. His injuries, though severe, are not of a dangerous character.

Matthew James Higgins, the recently deceased "Jacob Omnium" of the London Times, was six feet seven inches in height. Most Parisians know by sight the "giant" who, at least twice a year, walked about the Champs Elysées. Not many years ago he went to see the hunting at Compeigne, and a French gentleman offered to buy son charmant petit cob, which was a horse seventeen hands high, but which looked like a pony under the crushing weight of the giant whom the then Colonel of the Life Guards refused to receive as a cornet, saying simply that "it would be cruelty to chargers." But the best anecdote of him was his going to see a French giant. He was the first of the audience who arrived. Presently a family came in. "I am swindled," said the father, who had paid; "why, I saw him this morning in the Champs Elysees!"

Hull, in Plymouth county, Mass., nine miles southeast of Boston, it is stated, was known before the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers at Plymouth Rock. It was visited by Capt. Smith, of Virginia, when on an exploring tour, and was by him called Nantasko. He landed there to trade with the natives in 1714, and was accompanied by eight men. There were thirty-three houses in Hull at the time of building the first house in Boston. It was then, and for the first time, the chief port of entry for Massachusetts. The present population is about 300.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ THE APPETITE FOR

Tobacco Destroyed!

Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be, ☞ IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobocco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

700 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. 360 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office, in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.

The Company believe that these Bonds, at the present rate, are the cheapest in the market, and reserve the right to advance the price at any time.

Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;
HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;
S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;
PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;
ROBINSON BROS., 78 Fourth street;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

Criminal Court.—The September term of the Court of Quarter Sessions commences to-day.

First Ward, Allegheny, young men will meet to-morrow evening in Washington Hall to form a Tanner Club.

The Second Ward Grant Club will meet to-night at headquartors, Wilkins Hall, for the purpose of participating in the grand Sherman demonstration.

To-night the various ward organizations and Grant and Tanner Clubs will turn out with torchlights to welcome Hon. John Sherman. Let every Republican fall into line and swell the ranks.

Seventh and Eighth Wards.—The Grant and Colfax Clubs of the above wards will hold their regular weekly meetings on Monday evenings hereafter instead of Tuesdays, as formerly, as will be observed by reference to a notice under the head of "Political," on the fifth page.

Correction.—The parties concerned in the pocket-picking case before Alderman Owston, acting Mayor, on Friday, reported in yesterday's GAZETTE, were not boarders at the William Penn Hotel, in the Ninth ward, as stated, but at the Peensylvania Hotel. The proprietor of the Wm. Penn desires the correction.

The Tanners' Club of the city publish orders in another column, through Marshal Brown, in regard to the Sherman demonstration to-night. A general invitation is given to all clubs and ward organizations to fall into the procession to-night. The lines will form on Water street, right resting on Smithfield street.

Personal.—Mr. E. P. Carpenter, well known as the courteous and gentlemanly agent of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company in this city, leaves for Philadelphia during the coming week, where he will look after the interests of the Company in that city. Mr. C. will be succeeded by Mr. Gibson, long connected with Messrs. Sumner & Co., and who is fully able and will fill the position with credit, and in a manner which will doubtless give satisfaction to the Company.

Bankruptcy.—On Saturday morning, in the bankruptcy branch of the United States District Court, Judge McCandless granted certificates of discharge to Van Ransaller Gillet, of Erie county, and G. T. Waters, of Mifflin county. Petitions for final discharge were presented by Thomas Scandrett, of Allegheny City; Stephen D. Bacon, of Wyoming county; Edward McBride, of Armstrong county; Philip Wilson of Allegheny county, and the usual orders were made. Petitions for adjudication were filed by Jacob Coblentz, of Allegheny City, and James S. Boker, of Luzerne county.

Coroner's Inquest.—The jury impannelled to inquire into the cause, and after what manner, Daniel Ross, who was shot by Daniel Tease, an account of which we published several days since, came to his death, met pursuant to adjournment on Saturday at four o'clock at the office of Dr. Walker in Mansfield. After hearing the testimony of Drs. Sutton and Walker, who made the post-mortem examination, the following verdict was rendered:

"That the said Daniel Ross came to his death in Robinson township, Allegheny county, on Thursday, September 3d, from a pistol shot wound received on September 2d, said pistol being in the hands of Daniel Tease."

The Young Men's Christian Association has done noble work during the past year, and we are sorry to say that some of those who entered into it at first with so much enthusiasm and zeal have relaxed in their efforts, and the Association, instead of growing stronger in the fight of Faith, is daily becoming weaker in financial strength. In order to re-awaken an interest and to encourage those who are now laboring under material disadvantage, a special meeting of the members will be held at the Third Presbyterian Church, Sixth street. We sincerely hope and trust that there will be a full and liberal attendance, and that such a praiseworthy association will not be permitted to languish and die out for want of proper appreciation or religious zeal in the community.

A Fracas in Lawrenceville.

As the Twelfth Ward Tanner Club was passing the Garrison wall, in Lawrenceville, on Saturday evening, they were attacked by a crowd of rowdies, and quite a fracas ensued. Stones were thrown and a number of persons injured, among others Mr. A. J. Cochran, the Republican candidate for City Treasurer. One of the assailants, Joseph H. Shook, who resides in Lawrenceville, was captured and taken before Alderman Herron, who committed him to jail to answer charges of riot and assault and battery.

Probable Stolen Goods.

The Allegheny police yesterday morning, about three o'clock, arrested two men who were acting in a suspicious manner. When taken to the lock-up an extra black broadcloth coat was found in the possession of each, which somewhat confirmed the officers in their suspicions. The men stated that they were returning from a ball, given in Brownstown, to their homes a short distance below Woods' Run, where they were well known. One of them was sent to the place mentioned and returned later in the day with several citizens, who identified the men as residents of the vicinity, but could tell nothing further of them. Under these circumstances they were discharged, but the coats were retained and will be returned to any person proving ownership.

Ordination and Installation.

On Thursday of last week Rev. James Y. Boice, of this city, was ordained to the office of the ministry and installed pastor of the First Reformed Presbyterian Congregation of Cinninnati, by the Reformed Presbytery of Ohio, in connection with the General Synod, which met in this city last May. Mr. Boice was formerly a licentiate under the care of the Reformed Presbytery of Pittsburgh. He refused to identify himself with those members of the Presbytery who "suspended their relations" to General Synod a few months since, and took his credentials to Ohio from the Old Presbytery of Pittsburgh, which still maintains its relation to the Synod. Upon these credentials he was received by the sister Presbytery of Ohio. We are pleased to learn from the Cincinnati papers that Mr. Boice enters on his new field of labor under very encouraging circumstances.

New Trial Granted.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Dr. J. L. Ruechler, convicted at the last term of the Criminal Court of outraging the person of a female while she was under the influence of chloroform, administered for the purpose of having some teeth extracted, was argued on Saturday morning before a full bench. The counsel for the defendant claimed that the testimony adduced by the prosecution was not sufficient to warrant a verdict of guilty, and so confident were they at the close of the trial that the charge had not been sustained, that they submitted the case without argument. The character of the defendant, and the improbability of the statements of the prosecuting witnesses, were referred to. It was also asserted that additional evidence could be procured tending to prove the defendant's innocence. Judge Mellon delivered the opinion of the Court, granting a new trial.

POLITICAL.

Meetings to be Held on Monday and Tuesday.

MONDAY.

At Pittsburgh, corner of Magee street and Pennsylvania Avenue—W. C. Moreland, and W. T. Haines, Esqs.

At Millvale Borough—A. M. Brown, Esq.

At Chartiers Township—Thomas Ewing, and J. A. Morris, Esqs.

At Eleventh Ward (old Seventh) School House—David Reed, and S. M. Raymond, Esqs.

Meeting in the Seventeenth Ward.

One of the largest and most interesting meetings of the campaign was held Saturday evening, at the corner of Butler street and St. Mary's avenue, in the Seventeenth ward. The Republicans turned out in their might, and there were many honest Democrats present, who, being tired of the "clap trap," "catch penny" arguments of Democratic speakers, came out to hear the questions at issue discussed in a fair and honorable manner by men who understand them. A large number of ladies graced the meeting with their presence, which as a natural consequence had a tendency to prevent disturbance.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. S. W. Reynolds, who proposed the following named gentlemen as officers:

President—G. S. Bates.

Vice Presidents—J. T. McClure, A. McClintock, Jacob Mattern, H. Schmidt, Christopher Miller, John Nasser, C. Norton, W. C. Brown, John Schmidt, Daniel Donahue, Col. A. Scott, Christ Umverzock, Z. Wainwright, John Chritz, C. Rode, John Kinsey, Sr., Robt. Cane, G. E. McCready, G. W. Gardner, M. Bosworth, Robt. Bell, Jr., J. D. Clowse, Geo. Holgrave, J. W. Riddel, Edward Morganroth, John Chislett, Jr., Ed. Davison, Adam Esler, Wm. Livingston, Thos. Jones, W. Bailey.

Secretaries—F. M. Gardner, G. W. Nichols, Robt. P. Black, A. J. Harbaugh, John Miller, Frank Donahue, and reporters of the Republican press.

The Chairman, Gen. A. L. Pearson, who stated that he was not going to punish them with a long political harangue, but would merely talk awhile to the soldiers present. The General said that there was but one question at issue in the present contest, and that was the same which had engaged the minds of the people during the war, and that was "should the loyal people control this Government or should it be turned over to the control of those men whose hands were red with the loyal blood of the nation."

The only platform the soldiers of this county stood upon were the glorious stars and stripes, and the "treacherous stars and bars." The Republican party presented the flag of the nation with a star for every State as the platform, and the Democrats presented the same platform which was carried at the head of every regiment of rebel troops, and which they were compelled to lay down to Gen. Grant at Appomatox Court House—the rebel flag. He closed with an eloquent appeal to the Democratic soldiers, to think of the matter calmly before casting their votse for the enemies of the Government.

Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., was the next speaker. He discussed in an able manner the reconstruction question, and held that the conditions imposed upon the people lately in rebellion were not only fair and honorable, but far more liberal than they had any right to expect, and that they would have been perfectly satisfied with them had it not been for the hope of re-establishing the institution of slavery, which hope was encouraged by Andrew Johnson. The reconstruction acts passed by Congress imposed nothing upon the rebels which were not strictly necessary for the protection of the Government against the assaults of traitors in the future.

[After Mr. Marshall had been speaking some time, delegations composed of the Twelfth ward Club and the Central Tanners' Club, headed by a band of music and equipped with torches, arrived and were enthusiastically received.]

After quiet had been restored the speaker resumed and discussed at considerable length the merits of the local candidates, and appealed to the soldiers present to cast their votes at the approoching election against the same foe they had shot at during the war.

At the conclusion of Mr. Marshall's remarks, General J. K. Moorhead, who was present, was loudly called for, and made a forcible argument in favor of the principles of the Republican party, and held that through it alone the country could be saved from ruin.

The meeting then adjourned with three cheers for Grant and Colfax and the State County, and city tickets.

Republicans of Temperanceville Moving—Large Mass Meeting—Great Enthusiasm.

The friends of Grant and Colfax of Temperanceville rallied en masse in front of Ballentine's & Co.'s store, on the Pike, on Friday evening last, to manifest their interest in the present political struggle. A neat and commodious speakers' stand had been erected in front of the store for campaign purposes, around which the voters began to assemble at an early hour, so that when the meeting was called to order there was scarcely a foot of ground vacant within the sound of the speakers' voice.

The Temperanceville Glee Club was in attendance and aided by a splendid brass band enlivened the occasion with some very splendid and soul-stirring airs. From the commencement to the close of the proceeding, no one left the ground, so much were all interested and enthusiastic in the cause which had brought them together.

An organization was effected at half past seven o'clock, after the unanimous election of the following officers:

President—Thomas Balph.

Vice Presidents—John S. Hunter, John Wilkinson, Thomas Hershberger, Thomas Ferguson, Jefferson Richardson, John Smitley, John Bryant, Nathaniel Ballentine.

Secretaries—S. H. French, James Critchlow.

The Chairman, after returning thanks for the compliment tendered him, introduced W. C. Hull, Esq., a resident of Temperanceville, lately returned from a visit to Tennessee. Mr. Hull made a brief address, in which he dwelt particularly on the deplorable condition of Tennessee under the reign of terror caused by the depredations of rebels and the Ku Klux Klan. The speaker gave the result of his own observations in the matter, and his remarke were listened to with careful attention by the audience.

S. A. McClung, Esq., next addressed the assemblage for about half an hour on the financial question, his remarks exhibiting an acquaintance with, and an adeptness in handling this difficult theme which bespoke its careful, reflective study on the part of the speaker.

The Glee Club now favored the audience with a song, after which John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., was introduced and delivered an address abeut an hour and a half in length, abounding in telling hits and keen logical argument which elicited frequent and long continued applanse.

At the close of Mr. Kirkpatrick's speech, the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Grant and Colfax, the State and county tickets.

Braddocks Fields.

The usually quiet but thriving and prosperous village of Braddocks Fields was aroused from the lethargy incident to towns of its character, and thrown into a state of political excitement for the time being, on Saturday night last, by one of the largest and most enthusiastic Grant and Colfax meetings which has been held outside of the city during the present campaign. Old men and young turned out from the work shops, from the coal mines, and from the counting rooms, and the honest but hard working farmers for miles around helped to swell the crowd until it numbered many hundreds. The Grant and Colfax Club of the borough turned out armed and equipped with torches, banners, caps and capes, and headed by a band of martial music marched through the principal streets of the town. A large number of ladies, the wives and daughters of the loyal, patriotic mechanics, merchants, miners and farmers were present and gave their sanction to the noble effort now being made, of which that meeting was a part, to prevent the Government from falling into the hands of those who have labored to destroy it.

The meeting was organized by calling Col. E. Jay Allen to the chair, and appointing Lieut. Isaac Mills, Jr., Secretary.

Col. Allen, on taking the chair, in a neat and appropriate address thanked the meeting for the honor conferred upon him, and introduced Mr Miles Humphreys, who made a telling speech to the workingmen. Mr. Humphreys being a laboring man himself, and having been identified with the Trades Unions of this county since their origin here, is perfectly familiar with the interests of labor and its requirements. He canvassed the financial question fairly and most effectually exploded the "pedagogue" would-be Congressman's theory.

At the conclusion of Mr. Humphreys' remarks, W. T. Haines, Esq., was introduced to the meeting, and delivered an eloquent and forcible address. The speaker discussed all the questions at issue in the present campaign in an able manner, and although his address was quite lengthy his hearers listened with marked attention to its close.

The meeting then adjourned.

Mass Meeting at Bloomfield (Sixteenth Ward)—Large Turnout—Speeches by Messrs. Siebeneck, Parkinson and Zoller.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of the Sixteenth ward was held at the wigwam on the grounds of A. B. Boal, Esq., on Saturday evening. The meeting was called to order at eight o'clock and the following officers appointed:

President—A. B. Boal.

Vice Presidents—Robert Watson, John Gaugwisch, Wm. Woolslayer, Richard Kirkwood, W. Craig, Geo. W. Humbert, Geo. Bratesch, Wm. C. Barr, Thos. Merkle, Benjamin Smith, John C. Stewart, Samuel M'Kinley, W. Hohlman.

Secretaries—R. H. Smith, John Woolslayer.

During the progress of the meeting the Central Tanners' Club, uniformed and carrying torches, and commanded by Colonel Joe Browne, marched up to participate amid vociferous cheering. Addresses were made in German by J. I. Siebeneck and in English by Messrs. R. Parkinson and J. F. Zoller, and at a late hour the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Grant and Colfax.

Meeting at Braddocks Field.

An enthusiastic meeting was held in the Borough of Braddocks Field on Friday evening. Col. E. J. Allen was called to the Chair and J. N. Baldridge appointed Secretary. A great deal of earnest working feeling was manifested and a Grant and Colfax, and Tanners' Club were organized. Isaac Mills, Jr., was elected President of the Grant and Colfax Club. C. C. Fawcett, J. N. Baldridge and Alex. McCluly vice Presidents; Capt. M. C. Corry, corresponding Secretary; Thomas McVey, Treasurer; Col. E. J Allen, Wm. Redman, Geo. Fritz, C. C. Fawcett and M. J. Bennett, Finance Committee.

A large number of Republicans joined both the Grant and Colfax and Tanners' Club. Capt. M. C. Corry, C. C. Fawcett, W. B. Robison, Geo. V. Fritz and M. J. Bennett were appointed a Committee to complete the organization of the Tanners' Club.

The Berough of Braddock's will not be behind the balance of the County, and will roll up a majority for the Union ticket.

Plum Township.

The Republicans of Plum township held a meeting at New Texas, Friday evening, which was one of the largest and most interesting township meetings of the campaign. The Republicans of that township are at work and will give a good account of their doings at the approaching election. The meeting was addressed by Hon. T. J. Bigham and Mr. Raymond.

Arrangements were made for holding an open air daylight meeting, the time and particulars of which will be duly announced in the city papers.

The meeting then adjourned.

Upper St. Clair.

The Republicans of Upper St. Clair township turned out en masse to a meeting at Alex. Gillespie's, in that township, Friday evening. The meeting was addressed by Thomas Ewing and W. S. Purviance, Esqs. The men of Upper St. Clair are wide awake, and have resolved to give a larger vote for the Republican ticket at the approaching election than they have ever cast before.

A Noisy Time in Birmingham.

Democracy was rampant in Birmingham on Saturday night. Early in the evening a pole was raised on the corner of Denman and Washington streets, Mr. W. M. Mundorf displaying great skill in superintending on the occasion, and, indeed, it seemed to us that but for him there would have been a failure, as the arrangements at the outset were decidedly confused. The pole raising was followed by a meeting at Kunzler's, in the market square, where a large crowd assembled, including a delegation from Lower St. Clair. Maj. Patterson was general superintendent. The first speaker was A. G. Cochran, Esq., who, in a manner and voice, acquitted himself well, but his speech was of the Democratic sort, consisting of an appeal to the prejudices rather than to the common sense of the people. Mr. C. paved the way for ex-Gov. W. F. Johnston, who followed in a heavy speech, consisting mainly in a labored effort to demonstrate that for three years past we had been living under an unconstitutional government. Anthony Weidman, Esq., made a speech in German, and it was a tremendous effort. His excited manner and violent gesticulation took the crowd, as it were, by storm, and the applause was vociferous. Mr. W. had evidently intended an extensive speech, but, yielding to frequent admonitions in his rear to "cut it short," and also an occasional tug at the tail of his coat, retired, as he said regretfully, before he was "half through." Alexander McIlwaine, Esq., was next introduced and made an address remarkable mainly for the elegance of the language used. These, we believe, were all the speakers. The meeting was orderly, the Republicans, of whom there were a large number present, not manifesting the slightest disposition to create disturbance. There was considerable rowdyism on the streets, in the vicinity of the market space, and at one time the saloons in the neighborhood were closed, a few turbulent spirits having engaged in a row. The feature of the meeting was the excellent performances of the "John P. Heisel Glee Club," consisting of twelve members. Their singing was really good, and we could not but regret that their services were not enlisted in a worthier cause. Justice Heisel, of East Birmingham, after whom the Club is named, was present and seemed to fully appreciate the honor conferred upon him.

Sunday School Picnic.

The annual picnic of the Sunday School connected with the North Avenue M. E. Church, Allegheny, was held on Saturday in Gallagher's Grove, in the suburbs of the city and was an exceedingly pleasant and enjoyable affair. The day was all that could be desired and the occasion, as all such occasions are, was one of great excitement, especially to the little folks, whose enthusiasm and hearty enjoyment infused themselves into the whole proceedings. Through the kindness of Captain Kountz, transportation was furnished for all in attendance, a sufficient number of cars for that purpose having been run off the Manchester Passenger Railway to the Pleasant Valley, at the terminus of which the grove is situated. Arrived at their destination, the cars were quickly relieved of their happy load, and soon the woods were made vocal with the music of childhood's merry laughter.

The morning hours wore rapidly away, and when the time for the feast arrived, a hungry, smiling company gathered around a table fairly groaning beneath the weight of innumerable substantials and delicacies, a sight of which would have caused the eyes of Ichabod Crane to dance with delight and his lips to smack with very joy. Judging from the manner in which the edibles disappeared, there was many an Ichabod present who did ample justice to his appetite, totally regardless of all things else.

The after-dinner amusements moved rather slow for a time but gradually the spirit of enjoyment resumed its sway, and until the shadows of evening came on, old and young entered with a hearty zest into all the pleasurable excitements of the occasion.

At a proper hour the gathering was broken up, each of the weary but merry hearted pleasure seekers bearing away gratifying recollections which will hereafter serve to make this, one of the brightest in memory's calendar of days.

The Boat Race.

The approaching boat race between Walter Brown, of Fortland, Maine, and Henry Coulter, of Allegheny, which is to take place on the upper Monongahela course, Wednesday evening, is creating very little excitement in the city, although it promises to be the beginning of a new era in boat racing, as both parties appear anxious to have the race decided upon the merits of the contestants. The community have, however, become so disgusted with the many "fowls," and disgraceful proceedings in races for the championship, that but little interest is taken in the matter.

Coulter makes his headquarters at the Xanthe boat house, which has been removed from the Allegheny to the Monongahela above the dam. He has attained his rowing weight—one hundred and sixty-eight pounds—and is in excellent spirits.

Walter Brown arrived in the city at 9:40 yesterday, and put up for the day at the Monongahela house, where he was called upon by a number of his old friends. He left home Thursday, at which time he weighed 148½ pounds; he will row at 153. This morning he will go up the river and select the course, a privilege granted him by the articles of agreement, after which he will make his headquarters at the Glenwood House. The boat in which he will pull is a paper shell, constructed by Waters & Co., Troy, New York, and modeled by himself. It is 30 feet in length, 12 inches in width, 6¾ inches in depth, and weighs 24 pounds: cost, $135. He appears to be in good condition, and expresses himself confident of winning the race, but admits that it will take work to do it.

Hamill, we learn, has forwarded the first deposit, $250, to Frank Queen, of the Clipper, to be covered by the winning man in the present race.

A Police Officer Sentenced to Jail.

James Brown, who was convicted in the Criminal Court about a year since, on a charge of burglariously entering the shoe store of Messrs. Palmer & Anshutz, on Market street, was called up in the Quarter Sessions Court, on Saturday morning, for sentence. Brown who was a police officer, visited the store on a Sunday, in company with an employe of the establishment, and was detected in the act of trying on a pair of boots. A lot of goods had also been tied up, and placed on the counter preparatory to being removed. Brown's companion, a man over sixty years of age, was tried on the charge, convicted, and is now serving a term of imprisonment in the Penitentiary. Brown, however, averred that he merely visited the store as a "stool pigeon," in order to entrap the old man, whom he had suspected of being a thief. The jury found him guilty, when a motion for a new trial was made, and subsequently overruled. He was admitted to bail, and in answer to a summons, presented himself in Court on Saturday morning. When his case was called, the Court remarked that in view of the circumstances, and the probability of Brown's innocence, it felt constrained to make the sentence as light as possible. Brown was then sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and the costs of prosecution, and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for a period of twenty days. He was then taken to prison, but as an effort is being made to procure a pardon from the Governor, he will probably be released during the present week.

Mysterious Shooting Affair.

Saturday evening, between eight and nine o'clock, a most unfortunate event occurred in Sharpsburgh, resulting in the death of Mr. William Cupps. Mr. C. was sitting in his home about the centre of the room on the first floor, resting his elbow upon a table, while his daughter was reading aloud to him, when he was struck by a bullet and killed instantly. The ball passed through the upper centre light of the lower sash of the window on the side of the house fronting the railroad, and passing through the fleshy part of the left arm entered the left breast, and passing through the heart killed him instantly. The downward inclination of the ball as indicated by its coming from the window at which the deceased was sitting would lead to the conclusion that it had come from the bluff above the house. Coroner Clawson was notified and empannelled a jury yesterday when several witnesses were examined. Their evidence was to the effect that the shot was fired from the vicinity of the residence of Christian Cook, which is about two hundred feet distant from Cupps' house. The inquest was then adjourned until this afternoon.

Christian Cook and Adolph Denman, who it appears was at Cook's house on Saturday night, both were arrested and brought to the lock-up where they will remain until the investigation is concluded.

Grant Hussars.

An advertisement signed "Spurs" which appeared in Saturday's GAZETTE, attracted much attention, and for the information of those who made inquiry for the author, we refer to the order addressed to "Grant Hussars," in another column. The suggestion met with prompt response, a whole battalion of horsemen having been already enlisted. General William Blakely has accepted the command. It is proposed to raise a regiment of horsemen under the above name to participate in the processions of the campaign. The uniform adopted will cost less than two dollars, being simply a military cap, an army blouse with belt, and ordinary pants. A torch for night processions will be worn similar to a sabre. A meeting will be held to morrow evening at McCallum's, Fifth street, carpet store, to perfect the organization. A section of a battery has been accepted. Butchers, draymen and all those having horses will be taken as members. Those in the districts outside of the city desiring to join by squads or companies should address Mr. S. J. McFerran, the Secretary of the organization.

Amusements.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The dramatic season of 1868-9 was opened on Saturday night at the Opera House, under the auspices of M. W. Canning, Manager; W. Henderson, Lessee, and F. O. Savage, Stage Director. Under the gas light the house looked very neat and pretty, the improvements being of marked and liberal character. There was in attendance a very comfortable audience in the auditorium, and the galleries were well filled. The play, "Love's Sacrifice," was not a good selection for an opening night, as it is deep and difficult enough to tax the energies and abilities of any strongly organized old company, much more a trembling new one, on the occasion of the initial bow to a strange audience. However the cast was strong, and as the play progressed the interpreters developed power and at times brilliancy. We believe that, as now constituted, the stock company of the Opera House is the best that we have had for many years in this city, and we trust that the high order of dignity and decorum established on Saturday night will be rigidly adhered to throughout the season, and that all cause for complaint in the past has been removed.

The company is composed as follows: Miss Augusta L. Dargo, of New York, Leading Lady; Mrs. Mark Bates, Soubrette; Mrs. D. B. Vandeeren, of St. Louis, Old Lady; Miss Lizzie Hardy, well known here; Miss Clara Seabrook, Boston; Misses Kate and Hattie O'Neill, Mobile; Miss Laura Bell; Mrs. John Land; Miss Sophie Baker; Miss Mary Williams; Miss May Dudley; Mr. Oliver B. Dowd, of Mobile, Leading Gentleman; Mr. J. W. Norton, of Boston, Light Comedian; Mr. W. H. Collings, Boston, Heavy Man; Mr. D. B. Vadeerer, St. Louis, Old Man; Mr. Harry Hotto, Low Comedian; Mr. T. D. Savage, Philadelphia; Messrs. J. M. Charles, John Dane, W. V. Ferguson, Harry Watson, J. E. Brown, B. S. Adams.

To-night Mr. Edwin Booth, the most gifted and brilliant historian on the American stage, opens an engagement of six nights, with his classical interpretation of Hamlet. The large sale of seats already made is ample guarantee of the brilliant ovation which awaits him.

MASONIC HALL—Logrenia opens this evening at Masonic Hall, and during the week will introduce some of his choicest experiments, selected from an immense repetoire of magical illusions, including his mysterious umbrella, feather and tube, a very complicated trick, and acknowledged by all who have ever witnessed it as the best of the kind ever introduced into the magic arena. The performing Canaries, Java Sparrows, Paroquets, White Mice, and the wonderful trained Russian Cat, are said to be wonderful in their performances. During Logrenia's performances in this city in February last, the Hall was crowded every evening by highly respectable audiences, all of whom were without an exception, satisfied with the entertainment.

The Other Side of the Question.

The statement of a lady named Watson, purporting to be sworn to before one of our city magistrates, under the head of "A Novel Way to Sell a Sewing Machine," appeared in the Dispatch, of Wednesday last, which the public, if they would judge from the article alone, would be led to think that we had a queer way of transacting business. In reply to this we would say that we do not wish to have any newspaper talk with the party who arranged this affair, as with him alone we have every reason to think the matter originated. All we wish to state to the public at large is the true facts of the case.

The lady in question came to our warerooms, uninvited, and examined our machine, stating that she had a Weed machine, and a lady acquaintance had advised her to purchase an "Empire," and if satisfactory arrangements could be made to have an exchange, she would certainly have one of the "Empire" make. After sending one of our clerks to visit her and examine the machine, she herself made the terms of the exchange and all appeared satisfactory. In a few weeks she returned and stated that her brother-in-law, on whom she depended for the funds to enable her to settle the amount agreed to be paid for the exchange, had refused to furnish her the money, and was dissatified as she did not consult him in the matter, and requested us to exchange the "Empire" for a Wilcox & Gibbs machine, which, with much reluctance, we consented to the second exchange, and thought everything would be satisfactory. But we were surprised in a few days afterwards to see her enter our store and request us to take back the last machine and give her her Weed machine.

We politely told her we never did that kind of business, when she threatened to publish the transaction, which we also requested her to do. If she had only published the truth, we would have been satisfied. In connection with this we would state that the agent of the Weed machine appeared to take a great deal of interest in this matter, in fact so much as to call upon us and threaten to publish the ladies' statement unless we returned her the Weed machine. To those who know both him and ourselves we leave the judgment as to which is correct in the matter, and to the public and our many friends we leave this subject for their decision.

Respectfully, CARSON & BROS.

Grant Rangers in Allegheny City.

A meeting of the loyal citizens of the Fifth and Sixth wards, Allegheny, was held on Saturday evening at the Fifth ward Grant Club headquarters, to take some action in regard to the formation of a club to be called the Grant Rangers. S. S. D. Thompson was chosen to preside, and D. W. Olegar appointed Secretary.

The President stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of organizing a company to parade on horseback in any procession authorized by the Republicans of the vicinity.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Patterson, Olegar and M'Clung, was appointed to confer with the Grant Legion of Allegheny county in regard to the securing of uniforms.

A Committee on Finance was also appointed, after which the meeting adjourned until Tuesday evening, September 8th.
